

More Of That Gospel Sound Monday

Recorded live before an enthusiastic crowd at Nashville's famed Grand Ole Opry, More of That Great American Gospel Sound brings together some of the most popular talents from the worlds of gospel and country. This 90-minute special of lively upbeat music airs March 16 at 9 p.m. On Center Channel 4.

Joining Tennessee Ernie Ford are acts as old as Grandpa Jones and Ramona and as upbeat as special guest star Andrae Crouch, one of gospel's hottest new stars. Also assisting with the joyful tunes are the incomparable talents of Della Reese, the harmonizing Happy Goodman Family, and The Nashville Sounds and Bill Walker Orchestra.

Special guest star Andrae Crouch is an outstanding example of someone delivering his message in a wide variety of musical forms. His selections vary from the fast-paced, soft rock "Jesus Is The Lord" to the love song "Dreamin'" and on to the jazz/spiritual beat of "Soon and Very Soon," and "My Tribute." When they team for a duet, Ernie and Andrae perform two more of Andrae's compositions, "It Won't Be Long" and the happily syncopated "I've Got Confidence."

In marked contrast to Andrae's contemporary treatment of gospel themes is the original, authentic mountain sound of Grandpa Jones and Ramona. One of the outstanding names in traditional, old-time music, Grandpa Jones has been performing for 50 years, most recently on the Hee Haw TV Show. On More Of That Great American Gospel Sound, Grandpa and Ramona (and their back-up guitarist, George McCormick) perform "Come and Dine" and "Just Over In The Glory Land" before teaming up with Ernie for a four-part rendition of "I'll Meet You In The Morning."

More classic gospel harmonies are represented on the program by the sounds of the Happy Goodman Family. Representing some of the highest standards in the field of gospel music, the Goodmans open the program with "We're Almost Home" and then do their version of the number one gospel song "Better Hurry Up."

A final musical high point is found in the performance of Della Reese. After recovering from an illness that almost took her life, she is now back performing with an unmatched fervor and intensity. She is, as Ernie says, truly inspirational.

Della begins her performance with a traditional gospel song called "Hush" and then moves on to her "own personal song," "God Is So Wonderful" (many people will recognize this Billy Preston adaptation of his original "You Are So Beautiful," which was made popular by Joe Cocker).

With her audience firmly in hand, Della cuts loose with some revival-style stompin' in "Turn To The Light," and then pairs up with Ernie to perform an old Ethel Waters' number called "His Eye Is On The Sparrow." For a pair who performed together for the first time two years ago (on That Great American Gospel Sound), their harmonizing has become moving and beautiful art.
