

Participants in 1981 Phi Delta Kappa Ball

Enfield, escorted by Elbert Whitehead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Whitehead. Other phases that provided variety and grandeur for the 1981 theme "Dreamers Can Be Winners" included renditions by The Shepard Dance Group under the direction of Mrs. Edith Johnson; vocal renditions by Miss Veronica Scott of Rogers-Herr Junior High School, accompanied by Arnold George.

Miss Cinderella and her court led the ball and guests danced until the stroke of midnight. The Wizards of Sound and John Henry Bates provided music for the occasion.

Prizes were awarded to Miss Cinderella and the runner-ups. Other participants received gifts. Every contestant received a plaque.

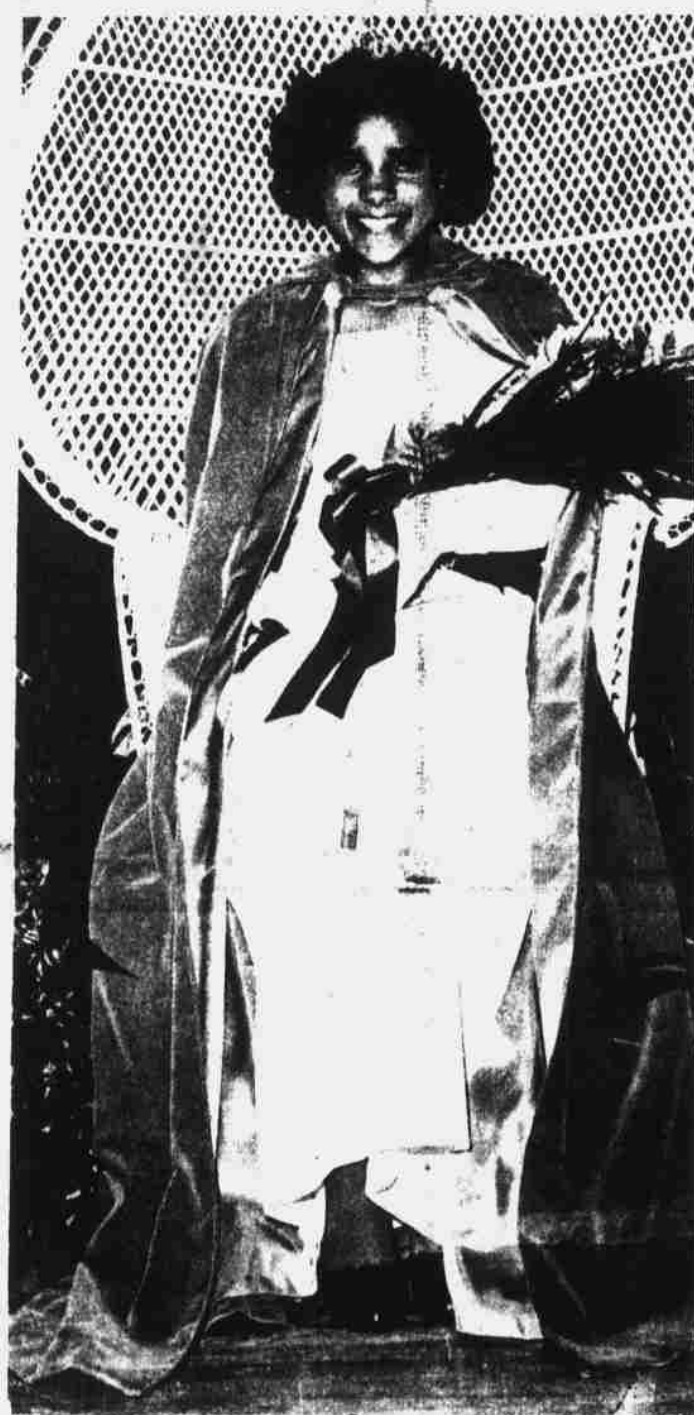

Prior to the ball, several charm clinics were conducted by Mrs. Kathryn Crutchfield for the young ladies and their escorts. A skating party was provided on Valentine's Day and a theatre party to attend the dramatic performances at North Carolina Central University.

Mrs. Minnie H. Cromartie is local Basileus. Mrs. Ella W. Brown is Cinderella Ball chairman.
