CRAFTSMEN TO TELL "HOW-TO" — Authentic early American crafts as practiced in Colonial Williamsburg will be demonstrated in Raleigh and Durham this spring.

Four Colonial Williamsburg craftsmen will present a series of lectures and crafts demonstrations through June 14 at Durham's Stagville Preservation Center with identical sessions in the Archives/Library Building in Raleigh.

A gunsmith, a cabinetmaker, a woodwright and a bookbinder will demonstrate their specialties and offer lectures on the subjects during an eight-part series sponsored by Stagville Preservation Center and the Department of Cultural Resources' archaeology and historic preservation section. The programs are free of charge and open to the public and interested professionals.

BASEBALL-SOFTBALL — The Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department is currently accepting registration for Youth Baseball and Softball. All boys and girls 7-15 years old interested in playing must register at the Recreation and Parks Office by Friday, March 27. A $5 fee and birth certificate are required at registration.

Adult volunteer coaches are needed for the youth leagues. If you are interested in coaching or have questions concerning the leagues, call 942-8541, ext. 203.

ROSE SHOW — Plans for the twelfth annual Rose Show, sponsored by the Chapel Hill Rose Society are underway. The show will open to the public Friday and Saturday, May 22-23, in the west court of Chapel Hill's University Mall.

All show exhibits and competition will be open to home rose growers and arrangers who desire to participate in categories including sixteen divisions of horticulture, plus divisions of miniature, old-fashioned roses, and artistic (floral arrangements). Awards in all categories will be at the discretion of accredited judges from outside of the Chapel Hill area.
