CARING FOR YOUR PRE AND PREGNANT SELF is the second topic of discussion in the free series of "The Whole Birth Catalogue" sponsored by Women's Health Counseling Service. A discussion of nutritional needs as well as environmental, occupational, and emotional concerns before and during pregnancy will be led by two informed speakers. Ms. Marsha Brown, who teaches prenatal exercise classes in Durham, will speak about and give demonstrations of aerobic exercises especially designed for women during pregnancy.

It is free and the public is invited to attend on Monday, April 13, 7:30 p.m., at the Newman Center in Chapel Hill.

For more information, call Ms. Elaine Barney at 968-4646.

BE A "BIG SISTER" — A 15 year old girl who lives in the Bragtown area needs a "big sister". She has little contact with others outside school and lives with her eighty year old grandfather and legally blind mother. She would like to have a special friend to spend time with her.

Groups are invited to lend a helping hand with neighborhood projects in our community. Playground equipment at several day-care centers needs a coat of paint, and sandboxes need filling for spring.

If you are willing to give some time, call the Volunteer Services Bureau at 688-8977, weekdays, 9-4.

ENGLISH HANDSMOCKING CLASS — Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department is now accepting registration for a four-week English Handsmocking class. Class will meet on Tuesday nights, 7-9, April 28-May 19. Participants will learn basic rules and stitches of handsmocking as well as how to create stacked figures. Hints on garment construction will also be offered. Each participant will have the opportunity to complete at least one project during class. A knowledge of sewing is helpful, but not required.

There is a $7 nonrefundable registration fee for the class. In addition, participants will need to purchase materials (estimated $5-$8) for their projects.

Instructor will be Ms. Martha Linn. For more information, call 942-8541, extension 203.

EXERCISE FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS — Do you like dance and good exercise, too. You can have both at St. Joseph's Performance Center on Old Fayetteville Street, Saturday afternoons. Classes begin at 12 for girls ages 3-6; 1 o'clock for girls ages 7-12; women's exercise class, 2-3; African dance class, 3-4:30 with live percussion and lots of fun. For more information, call 682-6045.

BULL CITY CARPOOLING PROGRAM operations have been transferred to the Triangle J Council of Governments in the Research Triangle Park. The transfer is part of a federally funded pooling of the region's urban ridesharing programs into one regionally coordinated program called TRI-A-RIDE, or Triangle Area Ridesharing Program. Call 549-9999 for names of others traveling your route.

SOUTHERN ARTS FEDERATION (SAF) — is seeking performing arts groups to include in its 1982-83 touring program. Southeastern performing arts groups interested in touring in the region beginning in September, 1982 should contact SAF immediately for application information. The deadline for application is April 15, 1981.

Each year SAF assists a limited number of professional touring theater, dance, opera and music groups with partial fee support to qualified sponsoring organizations in the Southeast. Performing groups are chosen based on their application, funds available and demand in a given art form.

A performing group must have a firm commitment from its board of directors, administrative staff and artists to the concept of touring for community audiences; a history of sound administrative and artistic direction and a regional or national reputation that demonstrates a high level of accomplishment. In addition, their artistic product, structured programs of educational value, and a demonstrated history of successful touring in their resident state will place the applicant in a favorable light.

SAF is a regional arts service organization with membership including the state arts agencies of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North and South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia.

For more information, write Southern Arts Federation, Suite 712, 225 Peachtree Street, NE, Atlanta, Ga. 30303.

1981 MARINE ENVIRONMENT WORKSHOP — The N.C. 4-H Program, the N.C. Marine Resources, and the N.C. Sea Grant are sponsoring a summer workshop on the Marine Environment July 19-24. The workshop is open to rising high school juniors, seniors and seniors who have graduated but not entered college.

Many facets of coastal life will be examined with special emphasis placed on the following three objectives:

—Create an awareness of marine resources and their potential value to man.

—Develop an awareness of ecological problems affecting marine life and the complexity of their solutions.

—Explore opportunities in marine related careers.

Outstanding educational research facilities and an excellent staff furnish an atmosphere of learning, fun and fellowship.

The workshop will be held at the Bogue Banks Marine Resources Center with lodging and other activities at Mitchell 4-H Camp, Swansboro, N.C.

For more information or applications, contact the 4-H office, 721 Foster St or call 688-2900. Application deadline June 1, 1981.

CPR CAN SAVE A LIFE — CPR is short for cardiopulmonary resuscitation. It's a way to help keep heart attack victims alive. And it works.

CPR classes can usually be completed in 8-12 hours of instruction given over 2 to 3 days. You'll learn how to give basic life support to adults, children and infants.

Look for the CPR posters in your area for class information or call the Triangle J Council of Governments at 549-0551.

CPR — one day it may save the life of someone you love.

HILLSIDE HIGH SCHOOL Class of 1932 will hold its quarterly meeting on Monday evening, April 13, at 7:30 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Carrington, 607 Cecil Street, Durham.
