

Gleaners Club

The Gleaners Club met Sunday, April 12, at the home of Mrs. Kitty Ola Curtis, 111 Oakmont Circle. After an inspiring devotion, Mrs. Lula Royal called the meeting to order for a business session. Plans were discussed concerning the sale of dinners on Sunday, April 26. Following the meeting, Mrs. Curtis served a delicious meal. Members present were: Lula Mae Royal, Sarah McNeill, Hannah Hamm, Hattie McClain, James Smarr, Margaret Allen, Kitty Curtis, Dorothy, Marilyn McNeil, Patricia Mercer, Frank Williams, Madison McDonald, Willie Sherrill, Annie Williams, Lucinda Harris and Fleur Steele. Mrs. Sara McNeil thanked the hostess.

Fayetteville Happenings

By Mrs. T.H. Kinney

Experts are saying that "stress" is today's buzz word. You see and hear it in the most unlikely ways — "stress". Their advice is "Try to relax."

Hope all of you will try to hear Dr. O.A. Dupree, sometime in the immediate future, tell you the story of "The Disturbed Man." It will be worth your time and effort. Dr. Dupree was Men's Day speaker at the 11th hour Sunday at St. Luke African Methodist Episcopal Church. Theme, "Men In Today's Church."

The afternoon program was held at 4 o'clock and Mitchel E. Gadsden served as chairman for the committee. Feast and fellowship were enjoyed by all who attended. Holy Week Services are scheduled all week long at 7:30 p.m.

Lee Boughman of E.E. Smith High School has been elected president of the Fayetteville-Cumberland County Youth Council for 1981-82. Mike Jackson, also of E.E. Smith, has been elected vice president. All new officers will be inducted at the group's annual awards banquet on May 6 in Green Valley Country Club.

You can see and enjoy the "Miss United Teenage Pageant" in the county auditorium, April 18, at 7:30 p.m.

You can also enjoy the "Indian Cultural Festival" in the arena, 5-11 p.m., Friday and Saturday, noon 'til midnight, April 24-25.

Mrs. Kinney enjoyed the company of Mmes. Baker, Lane, Walker, Hill, McLean, Webb, Page, Simmons, Shaw and Wilkerson during the weekend.

Dr. C.R. Edwards, pastor of First Baptist Church, was presented a plaque in appreciation for his accomplishments for the school system. Dr. Edwards served the schools for some eighteen years. Mrs. Mary Eldridge presented the plaque.

Several groups went to see, hear and enjoy "Green Pastures" at the Fort Bragg Playhouse.

Experts are asking all who ride bicycles to follow the safety rules carefully.

Donald Ray Carroll, student at E.E. Smith, was among student competition winners at the Expo 81 Trade Fair.

Pollution, wildlife energy, hazardous substances and citizen action will be discussed at the Environmental Conference '81 at the Rowan Street Youth Center.

A new degree in political science with a public administration track has been established at Fayetteville State University. This degree, which results in a B.S., requires 124 hours, with 33 in public administration and 15 in political science. The program is offered at the University's main campus, Fort Bragg and the Weekend and Evening Colleges. The admissions office at 486-1371 or the political science department at 486-1247 can give more details.

Sewing and Band classes will soon begin at J.S. Spivey Recreation Center. Call 483-5971 or 483-1762.

If interested in participating in the International Folk Festival, meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Hellenic Center.

Happy Birthday anniversary to John and Betty Melvin.

The Johnsons traveled to Asheboro and visited the zoo.

In memory of L.J. Lockamy, Jr. April 12. Lockamy worked with the State Department of Public Instruction.

The nation was saddened with the news of the death of 66-year-old former heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis — "The Brown Bomber" — a credit to his race.

In old Japan it was believed that eating ginseng root would help ensure long life.
