

Seventh Annual Advanced Researchers Institute Set

Applications are now being received for the Seventh Annual Archives Institute for Advanced Researchers scheduled for May 18-22. The Use of Records is the theme for the week-long institute. Sessions will be held in the Archives and History/State Library Building in Raleigh. Sponsored jointly by the Department of Cultural Resources and the Friends of the Archives, the institute will consist of lectures, workshops and projects involving the use of the records in the state archives and the land grant office of the Secretary of State.

Sessions will be devoted to methodology, cartographic records, land records, marriage records, tax records, census records and court records, according to Dr. Thornton W. Mitchell, state archivist. In addition a session will be devoted to "personal actions" such as naturalization, divorce, name change and private petitions in state and county records.

Staff for the institute will include members of the professional staff of the Division of Archives and History, but some sessions will be conducted by specialists who are not connected with the Archives.

Time will be available each day for individual research as well as for workshop periods. Certificates will be awarded to participants, and 2.5 Continuing Education Units will be available from Meredith College.

Institute admission is open to the general public but previous experience in the use of archival resource material is essential, according to Dr. Mitchell. Enrollment is limited to 30.

Details and application forms are available from: Archives Institute for Advanced Researchers, Archives and Records Section, 109 E. Jones St., Raleigh, NC 27611, or call (919) 733,3052.

Atlantic "Turns On The Beat" With 5 LPs

NEW YORK, NY — Atlantic Records has mounted a major marketing campaign in support of five current hit R&B/pop albums. The promotion is utilizing the slogan Turns On The Beat and includes the following LPs: Live & More by Roberta Flack & Peabo Bryson (Atlantic), House of Music by T. S. Monk (Mirage), All American Girls by Sister Sledge (Cotillion), License To Dream by Kleer (Atlantic), and Stone Jam by Slave (Cotillion).

As a part of this major, nationwide program, Atlantic is sponsoring a special in-store display contest open to the managers of all participating retail outlets. The manager of the store which does the best overall job of marketing the five albums, including creating the best merchandising display focusing on all five Turns On The Beat albums, will win a vacation for two in Nassau, Bahams. The Turns On The Beat campaign also includes extensive advertising support.

The contest, which began March 16, ends April 27.

All five albums included in the Turns On The Beat promotion are currently major national R&B and pop chart successes.
