

Gala of Stars 1981 Returns

"Gala of Stars 1981," the special three-hour finale to "Festival Nights" which featured some of the world's most illustrious singers, dancers and instrumental artists, returns on Center Channel 4 Monday, May 4, at 8 p.m. The Center is rebroadcasting several of the programs that ran during "Festival" to show its appreciation for the success of

"Festival Nights" and so that viewers may enjoy the programs uninterrupted.

In addition to being public television's tribute to performing artists and arts institutions, "Gala of Stars" is also a salute to the 90th anniversary of Carnegie Hall. Over its history, Carnegie Hall has earned a legendary place among musicians and audiences throughout the world. Performing there has launched careers, certified excellence and lent unforgettable memories to thousands of artists — classical, jazz, pop and even rock — who have crossed its stage.

Hosted by Beverly Sills, the roster of world-class artists in "Gala" includes singers Montserrat Caballe, Victoria de los Angeles, Marilyn Horne, Sherrill Milnes and Liza Minelli; dancers Cynthia Gregory, Gelsey Kirkland and Richard Schaffer; and instrumental virtuosi Claude Bolling, Victor Borge, Itzhak Perlman, Jean-Pierre Rampal, Isaac Stern and Alexis Weissenberg. Some of the performers travelled great distances — from France, Spain, the Caribbean and the West Coast — in order to participate in "Gala of Stars," and with the exception of the dancers, all have performed previously at Carnegie Hall.

Brief film tributes to Carnegie Hall and to violinist Isaac Stern (the man who led the crusade to save Carnegie Hall) highlight this special. Film clips from some of public television's many partners in performance (among them, Natalia Makarova, Stephen Sondheim, Barbara Cook and Mstislav Rostropovich) recall and express the artistic devotion of these performers to their art and their personal appreciation to public television for bringing their work to home audiences.

Atlantic/Atco Releases New Ben E. King Album

NEW YORK, NY — Atlantic/Atco Records has announced the national release for two new albums: Street Tough by Ben E. King (Atlantic) and Go For The Throat by Humble Pie (Atco).

Ben E. King's new Atlantic album, Street Tough was produced by King, Ray Chew, Janet Alhanti and Barrie Palmer. The LP features a balance of uptempo songs and ballads from this legendary vocalist, who has enjoyed a series of hits both with the Drifters and on his own. The album's title track, written by Willie Hutch, has just been released as a single.

Go For The Throat is the second Atco album from the reformed Humble Pie, featuring Steve Marriott (guitars, vocals, keyboards, mouth harp), Jerry Shirley (drums, percussion), Bobby Tench (guitars, vocals, keyboards), and Anthony "Sooty" Jones (bass guitar). Produced in

New York by Gary Lyons (for Fab Productions Inc.), the LP includes primarily Pie originals as well as a version of the Elvis Presley/Otis Blackwell tune "All Shook Up."
