CPR CAN SAVE A LIFE — CPR is short for cardiopulmonary resuscitation. It's a way to help keep heart attack victims alive. And it works.

CPR classes can usually be completed in 8-12 hours of instruction given over 2 to 3 days. You'll learn how to give basic life support to adults, children and infants.

Look for the CPR posters in your area for class information or call the Triangle J Council of Governments at 549-0551.

CPR — one day it may save the life of someone you love.

ADULT TENNIS CLASSES — Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department is offering Adult Tennis Classes. All classes are taught at the Wilson Park tennis courts. Registration for all classes is $10. Beginning level, May 4-June 15, Mon. and Wed., 7-8 p.m.; Advanced Beginning Level, May 4-June 1, Mon. and Wed., 5:30-7 p.m.

Preregistration is required and is held on a first-come-first serve basis. Please register in person at the Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department office prior to the first class. There is a $25 per family per year out-of-county fee for participants not residing in Orange County.

For more information, call 942-8541, extension 203.

PARTNERS AUCTION — The third annual Partners Auction to raise funds to support and expand the Partners program will be held on Saturday, June 6. The day-long auction will be telecast live on WRAL-TV, Channel 5. Viewers will be able to call in bids on new retail merchandise and services donated by area merchants.

Last year's auction produced $45,000 for Partners.

Partners works with youths 10-18 years old who are in trouble or need special help. By matching them up with a caring adult, these youngsters are helped with the many problems of growing up.

AUCTION AND YARD SALE — The Orange County Women's Center is planning its first major fundraising event for 1981. The Center's Fundraising Committee will hold an auction Saturday, June 6, 10 a.m., at the Carr Mill Mall in Carrboro. Along with the auction there will be a yard sale, refreshments, and information and literature about the Women's Center and its programs. Rain date: June 13.

Donations are needed for the auction and the yard sale as well as volunteers to help with planning, publicity and working the day of the auction. Anyone interested in making a donation (a special talent or service or a long lost treasure from the attic) or working on the auction should call Sue Nyden at the Women's Center, 968-4646. Auction donations must be delivered or called in by May 25.

ASSISTANCE NEEDED — Because of budgetary problems in the transporting of Chatham County Senior Citizens, the Chapel Hill Senior Citizen Nutrition Site is seeking assistance from concerned persons in the transporting of the eighteen elderly persons from northern Chatham who attend the Chapel Hill Nutrition Site.

Assistance can be rendered in the following ways:
•Persons owning large cars or vans could volunteer transportation once or twice per week.
•Monetary contribution could be made to furnish gasoline for those who can provide vehicles.
•Persons living in northern Orange but working in Chapel Hill could provide rides for the senior citizens in their vicinity.

If you can provide assistance or if you have further questions, call Mrs. Gatha Lassiter, Nutrition Site manager at 929-0492; or come by the Chapel Hill Multipurpose Center.

GETTING INTO PRINT: A One-Day Seminar for Genealogists, Local Historians and Folklorists will be held Saturday, May 2, at Isothermal Community College near Spindale. Conducted under the joint sponsorship of Isothermal Community College and the Division of Archives and History, the seminar will feature three areas of interest to writers: (1) Experienced authors. Jo White Linn (Mrs. Stahle, Jr.) and Dr. Harley Jolley will present information on getting research notes into manuscript form; selecting a publisher or printer; and marketing the finished product. (2) The roles of editors, publishers, printers and self-publishers will be presented by a panel of practitioners. (3) Representatives from various printing and publishing concerns, magazines and journals will be available for individual consultation during the day.

Registration information and complete seminar details may be obtained from: Carl Williams, Isothermal Community College, P.O. Box 804, Spindale, NC 28160 (Telephone 704/286-3636). Forms also available at the Durham County Library.

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE SEMINAR — A workshop seminar on "You, The Telephone Manager" and "Medical Collection Management" will be held at the Downtowner in Durham on April 28. The seminar is sponsored by PCS-Medical Bureau of Durham and will be conducted by Karen Zupko, director of the American Medical Association's Department of Practice Management.

John L. Walston, president of PCS-Medical Bureau, will be a guest speaker presenting the collection technique for the medical office. The program has also been approved by the Durham-Orange County Medical Society and is an excellent opportunity for anyone who works in a medical office to gain valuable communication skills.
