

Calendar And Announcements

LEISURE CLASSES — Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department is currently accepting registration for leisure classes in clogging, tennis, aerobic dance and women's fitness. For additional information, call 942-8541, extension 203.

JOB CORPS INFORMATION — Young women wishing information about the opportunities available through Job Corps may call the WICS office, 688-4396, or the project director at 489-2593.

HHS HONORS AND AWARDS PROGRAM — The Honors and Awards Committee of Hillside High School will present its 32nd Annual Honors and Awards Program on Thursday, May 21, at 7:30 p.m., in the school auditorium.

Guest speaker for the occasion will be a Hillside graduate and former administrator, F. Howard Alston. Alston has been recognized for his outstanding achievements in education, church, civic and community affairs.

Students will be honored for their meritorious accomplishments in both academic and extracurricular areas of the school's program. The public is cordially invited to attend.

SCARBOROUGH BOARD MEETING — Ms. Bettye Faucette will be guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Scarborough Nursery School Board of Directors. The meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, May 20, at the school, 309 Queen Street.

Ms. Faucette is Day Care Coordinator for Preventive Services Division, the Family & Children's Services, Durham County Department of Social Services.

Scarborough Foundation Board members are invited to attend.

4-H DOG CLUB — Youth in Durham County who are interested in learning more about the care and training of their dogs can obtain information by participating in a countywide 4-H Dog Club. The club will be open to all youth 9-19 years of age, regardless of where they live. Find out more about this club at an informational meeting on Tuesday, May 26, at 7:30 p.m., in the Agricultural Building, 721 Foster St.; or call Ms. Linda Washburn, Extension Agent, 4-H at 688-2900.

Exciting things are planned, so don't miss out! ESSAY CONTEST — In preparation for the Town of Carrboro's Annual July 4th festivities, youth ages 6-12 will have an opportunity to win a $50 savings bond in Carrboro's July 4th Essay Contest. The contest is part of the Carrboro July 4th Old Fashioned Family Day Celebration sponsored by the Recreation and Parks Commission.

In an effort to encourage youth in the community to think about the true meaning of Independence Day, the theme "What July 4th Means To My Family" was selected.

Age divisions and word limitations are as follows:

- ages 6-8 will be limited to 150 words or less;
- ages 9-12 will be limited to 250 words or less;
- entries must be neatly written on lined notepaper on one side only with an allowance for adequate margins. Ink is preferred but not required.
- Name, address, telephone number and age should be written on a separate but attached sheet of paper.

• Entries should be turned in by 5 p.m. on Friday, June 12, at the Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department located in the Carrboro Town Hall.

First and second place winners will be chosen from each age division. First prize will be a $50 bond and a plaque. Second prize winners will receive a plaque and certificate. Winners will be notified and prizes presented during the July 4th Celebration.

For more information, call 942-8541, ext. 203.

PHYSICAL EXERCISE CLASSES for Senior Citizens are being sponsored each Tuesday and Thursday morning, 9:30-10:30, at the W.D. Hill Recreation Center. For more information, call Ms. Renita Ritchie at 683-4355.

SIXTY OR OVER? The Retired Senior Volunteer Program needs a tutor for an elementary school child. You may be able to brighten this boy's future by spending just a few hours a week helping him with school work and being a friend. This is an immediate urgent need.

The RSVP will reimburse you for travel and insurance is provided free of charge. For more information, call Ms. Helen Pressley or Ms. Kathy Walters, 596-9311, extension 321, Durham Technical Institute.

RECYCLING Reynolds recycles at Northgate Shopping Center, every Tuesday through Saturday, 9-11 a.m.

Bring cans in a clear plastic bag, and other pieces cut to lengths not exceeding three feet and tightly bound. Other recyclable aluminum includes tubing, siding, pots, pans and cast parts. You will be paid cash on the spot.

For more information, call toll free 1-800-228-2525.

SEVENTH ANNUAL POETRY CONTEST — A $1000 grand prize will be awarded in the Seventh Annual Poetry Competition sponsored by World of Poetry, a quarterly newsletter for poets.

Poems of all styles and on any subject are eligible to compete for the grand prize or for 99 other cash or merchandise awards, totaling over $10,000.

Rules and official entry forms are available from the World of Poetry, 2431 Stockton, Dept. B, Sacramento, California 95817.

NATIONAL SAFETY INSTRUCTOR SCHOOL — The American Red Cross will conduct a National Safety Instructor School, June 6-14, on the campus of Francis Marion College, near Florence, S.C. Basic and Instructor courses will be offered in: Basic First Aid, Multimedia First Aid, Standard First Aid and Personal Safety, Advanced First Aid and Emergency Care, CPR Modular and Lecture, Advanced Life Saving, Water Safety Instructor, Adapted Aquatics, Basic Canoeing and Canoeing Instructor.

According to Mrs. Cynthia Reardon, executive director of the Durham County Red Cross Chapter, the facilities at Francis Marion, including the pool, are in well-controlled environments which permits classes to continue even during inclement weather. Living facilities are apartment style, with four students per apartment. The cost of attending the school will be $120.00. Fee covers the cost of room and board. Transportation to and from the school and text materials are additional.

Instruction will be provided by a staff of volunteers with long and valid teaching experience.

For additional information, contact Mrs. Reardon at the Durham County Chapter, 489-6541.

COLONIAL CRAFTSMEN TELL "HOW TO" — Next events in the series on authentic early American crafts as practiced in Colonial Williamsburg will be: Saturday, May 16, 1 p.m., Stagville Preservation Center and Sunday, May 17, 3 p.m., auditorium, Archives/Library Building, Raleigh — Roy Underhill, Master Carpenter (craft demonstration and lecture). On Monday, June 8, 7:30 p.m., auditorium, Archives/Library Building, Raleigh — "The Colonial Printer (film).

NEW TELEVISION SETS NEEDED — The Volunteer Services at John Umstead Hospital could use some new television sets for the patients. If any company or individual would like to donate one, it will be tax deductible. Call Mental Health Association at 683-2052.

DAISY AUTOMATIC SCHEDULE — DAISY is a 24 hour telephone/tape service provided by Durham Technical Institute. During the hours 1-9 p.m. Monday-Thursday and 1-5 p.m. on Friday, any tape in the DAISY program is available by calling the DAISY Operator at 596-0611. When the DAISY Operator is not on duty, ten tapes are available. Dial the phone number listed and the tape will play automatically.

May 18 - 24

596-0610 — Top Ten Records
596-0611 — DAISY: Weekly Automatic Schedule
596-0612 — Job Service: Openings Available Thru Employment Security Commission

596-0613 — General Education
596-0614 — What Is A Drug?
596-0615 — Unemployment Insurance
596-0616 — Economics Mini Course III
596-0617 — Facts About Prostate Cancer
596-0618 — How Life Insurance Operates
596-0619 — Superman: Yellow Mask

For a brochure that lists approximately 500 tapes, send a self-addressed, stamped, regular business envelope to DAISY, Durham Technical Institute, P.O. Box 11307, Durham, NC 27703.

FREEDOM TOUR — The Martin Luther King Center for Nonviolent Social Change and The Lindenwood Colleges, Lindenwood College 4, located in St. Charles, Missouri and St. Louis, Missouri, are offering a unique educational Freedom Tour. Portions of the route of the famed Freedom Ride will be traced in reverse. The tour will originate from New Orleans on July 19 at 7 a.m., and will culminate in Atlanta on July 25 at 6:30 p.m. For an additional cost, members of the tour have the option of attending the four-day Martin Luther King, Jr., Summer Institute on Nonviolence in Atlanta.

The Honorable Andrew Young, former ambassador to the United Nations, Mrs. Coretta Scott King, Martin Luther King, III, and Dr. Bernard LaFayette, Jr., director of Lindenwood College 4 and chairman of this project, are among a number of civil rights activists who will lecture during the tour on this vital era in American History.

The tour itself will be offered for college credit under the heading: "The Struggle for Human Rights in America: Perspective on the 1960's Freedom Movement." Other courses in the Humanities, Communications, Writing and Photography, will also be offered.

Participation in the tour and these events is not limited to those seeking college credit. Teachers, photographers, writers, researchers, and community leaders are offered a rare opportunity to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of the 1961 Freedom Ride and the historical events which occurred along the way.

Cost of the tour is $450 which covers all travel between New Orleans and Atlanta, including hotel accommodations and meals. To guarantee a space, a $200 deposit is required before May 30. The balance must be paid by June 20.

For more information, contact Ms. Lyda Marasigna or Ms. Pauline Hammen, Lindenwood College 4, St. Charles, Missouri 63301, 800-325-8429, 314/946-6912 or 723-7152.

PARTNERS AUCTION — The third annual Partners Auction to raise funds to support and expand the Partners program will be held on Saturday, June 6. The day-long auction will be telecast live on WRAL-TV, Channel 5. Viewers will be able to call in bids on new retail merchandise and services donated by area merchants.

Last year's auction produced $45,000 for Partners.

Partners works with youths 10-18 years old who are in trouble or need special help. By matching them up with a caring adult, these youngsters are helped with the many problems of growing up.

AUCTION AND YARD SALE — The Orange County Women's Center is planning its first major fundraising event for 1981. The Center's Fundraising Committee will hold an auction Saturday, June 6, 10 a.m., at the Carr Mill Mall in Carrboro. Along with the auction there will be a yard sale, refreshments, and information and literature about the Women's Center and its programs. Rain date: June 13.

Donations are needed for the auction and the yard sale as well as volunteers to help with planning, publicity and working the day of the auction. Anyone interested in making a donation (a special talent or service or a long lost treasure from the attic) or working on the auction should call Sue Nyden at the Women's Center, 968-4646. Auction donations must be delivered or called in by May 25.

WHEELBARROW NEEDED for children's play therapy at John Umstead Hospital. Medium size, with two inch wide front wheel. If you can supply a wheelbarrow, call Volunteer Services at John Umstead Hospital, 575-7217 or the Mental Health Association at 683-2052.

WINE & CHEESE PARTY — The South Orange Black Caucus will sponsor a Wine and Cheese Party on Sunday, May 17; 5-7 p.m., at the Holiday Inn across from Eastgate Shopping Center, 15-501 By-Pass in Chapel Hill.

The Caucus started in 1976 as response to a need in the black community for a broad-based community organization in which minorities could unite and address those social, economic and political matters affecting the community.

Major objectives of the Caucus are to:

- stimulate voter education and registration;
- assist with the campaigns of candidates seeking public office who represent the interests of the minority community;
- actively work on issues such as housing and employment.

The Caucus holds voter registration drives, issue and candidate forums and endorsements as means of accomplishing its objectives.

The Wine and Cheese Party is open to SOBC member, potential members and persons interested in learning about the Caucus. A $5 donation is requested to defer expense of the event. Tickets are available from members and will be on sale at the door. For more information, contact Weblon DeLon at 929-4817, Ms. Mae McLendon at 942-6571 or Jerry Caldwell.