

Calendar And Announcements

HAVING GARDENING PROBLEMS — Maybe the Agricultural Extension Master Gardeners of Durham can help. Local volunteer gardeners are available to assist you with any gardening questions you may have.

The 'hotline' number is 682-5000, operating daily from 9 a.m. til 1 p.m. through May.

OPEN AIR RIB JOINT — The Holy Cross Men's Society is sponsoring an "Open Air Rib Joint" on Friday and Saturday, May 22-23, at Holy Cross Catholic Church, 1400 Alston Avenue.

There will be bar-b-que ribs and bar-b-que chicken served with potato salad, green beans and a roll. Also try some of the homemade bar-b-que sauce.

Time: Friday, 6-9 p.m.; Saturday 12-9 p.m.

MANY THANKS — The Durham Chapter of the NCCU Alumni Association expresses sincere gratitude to the loyal supporters of the Spring Concert presented by the NCCU Concert and Touring Choirs under the direction of Dr. Charles H. Gilchrist.

DURHAM COUNTY SCHOOLS — Due to the large inventory of USDA donated foods in the schools, each Cafeteria Manager will select the menus for the months of May and June.

TENNIS LESSONS are offered at Edison Johnson Recreation Center on an on-going basis Monday and Wednesday mornings at 9 a.m. and 10:30. Cost for 12 hours of instruction is $22 for City residents and $24 for non-residents. Register at Edison Johnson Recreation Center or call 683-4355 for more information. Resource person: Ms. Eileen Witt.

"FETISH ART INVITATIONAL", a show featuring artists Steve Clapp, Rich Craven, Barbara Harmeyer, Mark Keppler, Bill McAllister, Lawrence Merenstein, Johnnie Mizell, Jerry Noe, Ann Rowles and Ann Shearer will run through May 31 at Center/Gallery, 118 E. Main St., Carrboro. Gallery hours: 11-5 Friday-Saturday; 2-5 Sunday. For information, call 967-1316.

BULL CITY CARPOOLING PROGRAM Save the gas. Call the one regionally coordinated program, TRI-A-RIDE, (Triangle Area Ridesharing Program), 549-9999, for names of others traveling your route.

CALENDAR ITEMS should reach us no later than Friday before the desired publication week. Two to three weeks prior is even better! Mail to: Calendar, The Carolina Times, P.O. Box 3825, Durham, NC 27702. No charge.

A MULTI MEDIA ART EXHIBIT — by members of Center/Gallery will be on display through June 26 at the N.C. Council on the Status of Women Gallery, 526 N. Wilmington St., Raleigh. Hours are 9-5, Mon.-Fri. For more information, call 733-2455 or 682-6234.

SUMMER CLASSES — Registration is open for six weeks of summer classes at The Studio Dance School, 1311 S. Roxboro St., in ballet, tap, ethnic, jazz and gymnastics, beginning the week of June 15. Weekday evenings or Saturdays. For more information, call 688-6961 or 682-6382.

REGISTER NOW — for classes at the New Performing Dance Co. & School, an affiliate member of the Durham Arts Council. A community outreach program offers free dance classes in Afro-American technique with Chuck Davis through the American Dance Festival. Children's and adult classes in modern, jazz styles, ballet, modern jazz, and dance exercise are available. Second summer session starts June 15. Call 688-1138 for more information.

ASSISTANCE NEEDED — Because of budgetary problems in the transporting of Chatham County Senior Citizens, the Chapel Hill Senior Citizen Nutrition Site is seeking assistance from concerned persons in the transporting of the eighteen elderly persons from northern Chatham who attend the Chapel Hill Nutrition Site.

Assistance can be rendered in the following ways:
 • Persons owning large cars or vans could volunteer transportation once or twice per week.
 • Monetary contribution could be made to furnish gasoline for those who can provide vehicles.
 • Persons living in northern Orange but working in Chapel Hill could provide rides for the senior citizens in their vicinity.

If you can provide assistance or if you have further questions, call Mrs. Gatha Lassiter, Nutrition Site manager at 929-0492; or come by the Chapel Hill Multipurpose Center.

NAACP AWARDS — Ms. Betty Sadler, secretary to the Chatham Community Branch, has been selected to receive "Outstanding Woman In NAACP Service" certificate of appreciation award for her contribution and service to humanity by N.C. State Conference of Branches at its annual Freedom Day Celebration and Mother of the Year Contest Sunday, May 24, 3:30 p.m., at White Rock Baptist Church, Durham. Kelly M. Alexander Sr., of Charlotte is state president.

FUNDS FOR INDIGENT — Patients at John Umstead Hospital who have no social security or families are in need of spending money for cokes, candy, etc. The patients are allowed $1.50 per week. If you would like to supply a year's spending money for a patient or make a donation to the Indigent Patient Fund, send your check to the Mental Health Association, 212 Albemarle St., Butner marked for the Indigent Patient Fund.

OFFICE WORKER'S SUPPORT GROUP — Offered by the YWCA, 809 Proctor St., through May 28 on Thursdays, 7-9 p.m. Come to any or all sessions. Fifty cents donation is asked per session. Facilitator is Ms. Melanie Scheller. Call 688-4396 or 286-4120 for more information.

TENNIS COURTS AVAILABLE — The Durham Parks and Recreation Department has tennis courts available for rental. Groups may rent available courts at the rate of $1 per hour per court day use or $1.25 per hour per court night use. Make tennis a part of your next family or business social. Call Ms. Eileen Witt at 683-4355 to reserve your courts now!

NCCU ARTISTS: NEW HORIZONS — Art exhibit through Summer School, North Carolina Central University Museum of Art. No admission charge. Hours 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Tuesday-Friday; 2-5 p.m., Sunday.

PROJECT LIFT (Learning Information For Today), offers information, reference and referral for adult education, hobbies and classes. LIFT also gets job listings from the Employment Security Commission. For more information, call 683-2626 Ext. 31 or visit PROJECT LIFT, at the Durham County Library, 300 N. Roxboro St. Hours are 9-9 Monday and Tuesday and 9-5:30 Wednesday through Saturday.

TO HONOR RETIREES — The Durham City Association of Educators and the Association of Classroom Teachers will honor the retiring educators of the Durham City School System Friday, May 29, at 5:30 p.m., at Rogers-Herr Junior High School. For further information, contact Barry Rice at Brogden Junior High School, 477-7893.

FREE FEATURE MOVIES are shown each Saturday at 3 p.m., in the auditorium of the Durham County Public Library. Plan to see "Father of the Bride" on May 23 and "Requiem For A Heavyweight" May 30.

NURSERY-KINDERGARTEN — Applications are now being accepted for the fall session of the North Carolina Central University Nursery-Kindergarten beginning in September. For further information, call 683-6447 or visit the NCCU Nursery-Kindergarten at the Diana S. Dent Home Economics Building at North Carolina Central University.

PARTY FAVOR BOXES NEEDED — The Volunteer Services Unit at John Umstead Hospital is in need of party favor boxes for ward parties. Boxes should consist of plates, napkins, cups, party favors, candy, cookies, and Kool-Ade. There are 36 patients per ward. Decorations should be in a holiday theme and can include simple wall cutouts, if available. Boxes may be taken to Volunteer Services or to the Mental Health Association office at 212 Albemarle St. For further information, call Volunteer Services at John Umstead Hospital, 575-7217 or Mental Health Association, 683-2052.

PERFORMERS & ENTERTAINERS — Bands, musicians, clowns, mimes, jugglers and other performers and entertainers are needed to perform during Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department's Old Fashioned Family Day Fourth of July Celebration on Saturday, July 4. If you are willing to volunteer your time and talents or would like more information, please call Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department at 942-8541, extension 203.

WRITING WORKSHOPS — Writing is a skill that everyone has and yet everyone can improve. A series of three-hour workshops offered by Duke University Office of Continuing Education is designed to help people in a variety of careers to write concisely, attractively and efficiently. The instructor is Ms. Lucy Knight, a free lance writer who now works as Coordinator of Research Support at Duke.

Individual sessions will meet, 6-9 p.m., in the Bivins Building, East Campus. Registration is open to the public without prerequisite. Details may be obtained by calling the Office of Continuing Education, 684-6259.

Schedule is: Tues. June 23-Writing for Professionals; Thurs. June 25-Writing for Medical Professionals; Mon. June 29-Writing for Your Boss; Wed. July 1-Writing Grant Proposals; Mon. July 13-Writing Research Papers.

MUSEUM OF LIFE AND SCIENCE — 433 Murray Avenue, Durham, is open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday; 2-5 p.m., Sunday. Call 477-0431 for information.

•"SWEDEN SAVES ENERGY!" an international exhibit of photographs and models describing imaginative solar, wind, and hydroelectric energy projects, through June 7.

•SUMMER ACTIVITIES: It is time to sign up for summer activities. Call 477-0431 to learn about art workshops, day camps, children's classes, Junior Curator Program, and adult classes being offered from June 15 through mid-August.

•FILM: "Dinosaur" will be shown Saturday, May 23, at 3:30 p.m. On Sunday, May 24 at 3:30 p.m., the full feature science fiction movie 2001 - A Space Odyssey will be shown.

1981 MARINE ENVIRONMENT WORKSHOP — The N.C. 4-H Program, the N.C. Marine Resources, and the N.C. Sea Grant are sponsoring a summer workshop on the Marine Environment July 19-24. The workshop is open to rising high school juniors, seniors and seniors who have graduated but not entered college.

Many facets of coastal life will be examined with special emphasis placed on the following three objectives:

—Create an awareness of marine resources and their potential value to man.

—Develop an awareness of ecological problems affecting marine life and the complexity of their solutions.

—Explore opportunities in marine related careers. Outstanding educational research facilities and an excellent staff furnish an atmosphere of learning, fun and fellowship.

The workshop will be held at the Bogue Banks Marine Resources Center with lodging and other activities at Mitchell 4-H Camp, Swansboro, N.C.

For more information or applications, contact the 4-H office, 721 Foster St or call 688-2900. Application deadline June 1, 1981.

WOMEN'S CENTER AUCTION — Ms. Nancy Lee of WCHL radio will emcee the Orange County Women's Center Auction Saturday, June 6 at 10 a.m. at Carr Mill Mall. (Rain date: June 13). Auctioneers will be Emerson Page of Durham and Ms. Beverly Burke of WTVD-TV News.

Auction items will include articles and services donated by local businesses and members of the community. There will also be a yard sale, refreshments, balloons, and information about the Women's Center and its programs.

Anyone interested in making a donation to the auction or yard sale should call the Women's Center, 968-4646, by May 22. Donations are tax-deductible.

ROSE SHOW — The Twelfth Annual Rose Show, sponsored by the Chapel Hill Rose Society, will open to the public Friday and Saturday, May 22-23, in the west court of Chapel Hill's University Mall.

CPR CAN SAVE A LIFE — CPR is short for cardiopulmonary resuscitation. It's a way to help keep heart attack victims alive. And it works.

CPR classes can usually be completed in 8-12 hours of instruction given over 2 to 3 days. You'll learn how to give basic life support to adults, children and infants.

Look for the CPR posters in your area for class information or call the Triangle J Council of Governments at 549-0551.

CPR — one day it may save the life of someone you love.

JOB CORPS INFORMATION — Young women wishing information about the opportunities available through Job Corps may call the WICS office, 688-4396, or the project director at 489-2593.