

North Carolina Dance Showcase — Third Year

The third annual N. C. Dance Showcase will come to Charlotte May 28-29 as part of the celebration of Dance Week in North Carolina, proclaimed by Gov. James B. Hunt, Jr., on May 25-31.

Sponsored by the N. C. Arts Council and Dance Charlotte, Inc., the Showcase brings the state's five main dance companies together on one stage. The Showcase to be held in Dana Auditorium at Queens

College, will open Thursday, May 28 at 4 p.m. with the Choreographers Showcase. The 8:15 p.m. evening performances will be presented by the N. C. Dance Theatre of Winston-Salem, Frank Holder

Dance Company of Greensboro, The Easy Moving Company of Raleigh, New Reflections Dance Theatre of Charlotte, and New Performing Dance Company of Durham.

C., Wolf Trap Farm for the Performing Arts in Vienna, Va., and the American Dance Festival in Durham. The company travels in its own bus and truck complete with lighting and sound equipment, dance floor and costumes, enabling it to present the same show in a small town or large city. It performs often in North Carolina schools.

In proclaiming Dance Week, Governor Hunt spoke of dance as "an important art form, incorporating and supplementing elements drawn from music, theatre and the visual arts." He referred to the state's national recognition as the "home to the N. C. School of the Arts, the American Dance Festival and other important institutions as well as being an important center of the dance world."

The Showcase is more than performance. Friday will be a day of classes conducted by teachers for dancers on all levels.

Tickets will be $5 for adults and $4 for students under 18. Tickets are available at the Spirit Square Box Office in Charlotte.

The Showcase is supported in part by funds from the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency, and the N. C. Arts Council.

For details call (704) 274-1619 in Charlotte or (919) 733-7897 in Raleigh.

Performing Thursday, May 28 will be:

Frank Holder Dance Co., established in 1973 in Greensboro, has rapidly taken its place as one of the premiere dance ensembles in the southeast. During its current season the company has performed in 37 North Carolina counties, 15 states, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. One of only 31 dance troupes nationwide to be selected to participate in the National Endowment for the Arts' Artists-in-Schools program, the company this year performed more in-school residences than any other dance company in the nation except one.

North Carolina Dance Theatre, originally created as a professional affiliate of the N. C. School of the Arts, is in its 11th season as a professional dance company. Dance Theatre performs throughout the United States presenting a varied repertoire of classical and contemporary works. It is among a very select group of companies with rights to works ranging from those by George Balanchine to Alvin Ailey.

N. C. Dance Theatre has performed from Alaska to Florida and at such prestigious events as Jacob's pillow Dance Festival in Becket, Mass., Spoleto USA in Charleston, S.

New Reflections Dance Theatre has in its repertoire works choreographed by company members as well as outside professionals. In addition to its regular concert series, it also has a rigorous performing schedule throughout the Charlotte community. New Reflections also offers dance instruction to all age groups. The company has recently merged with the Charlotte Regional Ballet and the Greater Dance Guild to form Dance Charlotte, Inc.

New Performing Dance Company was started in 1975 to provide a performing outlet for the many choreographers and dancers in the triangle area of Raleigh, Durham and Chapel Hill. In recent seasons the company has collaborated with local composers and musicians, has performed for educational and cable television and is in the process of helping renovate the Durham Arts Council Theatre as its permanent base. NPDC School, founded in 1977, provides instruction to children and adults on all levels.

The Easy Moving Company, with flexible troupes of three to six dancers, brings its art to a variety of audiences around the state through live as well as televised performances. Many of its performances have been given for children during tours for the N. C. Department of Public Instruction and participation in the N. C. Arts Council's Artists-in-Schools program. The company has also brought performances and workshops to audiences of people with various physical handicaps.
