Miss Robinson Weds Benjamin A. Dinkins

CHAPEL HILL — On Saturday, May 23, Miss Valerie Jean Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald G. Cannon of 1011 Jerome Road, Durham, and Ernest P. Robinson of Washington, D.C., became the bride of Benjamin Alan Dinkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Dinkins of Amityville, N.Y.

The 2 p.m. wedding was held at St. Joseph CME Church with the Rev. Floyd Gilbert officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Ernest P. Robinson. She wore a gown of white silk organza over taffeta, with the empire bodice neckline overlaid with Alencon lace, accented with pearls. The Bishop sleeves had matching lace appliques. The semi-fitted full skirt extended into a chapel length train with lace appliques and a hemline lace border. Her chapel length veil flowed from a cap of lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses, white carnations and daisies.

Musicians were Mrs. Marie Mann, organist; Bob Cummins, pianist; Charles McKnight and Haywood Allen, Jr., soloists. Miss Audrey Denise Robinson was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Ms.

Judith Brudnick, New York, N.Y.; Ms. Linda Gyant, Durham; Ms. Suzan Hurd, Milton, Mass.; Ms. Kathleen Miles, Madison, N.J.; Ms. Bernadette Weeks, New York, N.Y.

Abraham Jones of Raleigh was best man. Ushers were Daniel Holly, Washington, D.C.; Gordon Leftenant, Amityville, N.Y.; Philip Sunshine, Laurenceville, N.J.; Charles Toy of New York, N.Y.; Kevin Turman, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Children in the wedding, all cousins of the bride, were Miss Amanda Dunn of High Point and Miss Monica Gibbs of Beltsville, Md., flower girls, and Randolph Scott of Gary, Ind., ringbearer.

A reception followed the ceremony at Hargraves Center.

The bride is a 1979 graduate of Harvard-Radcliffe College, Cambridge, Mass. She is currently a second year student at Duke Law School in Durham.

The bridegroom is a 1977 graduate of Harvard College, and a 1980 graduate of Harvard Law School, Cambridge, Mass. He is currently a law clerk with Chief Judge Theodore Newman of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals.

The couple will live in Washington, D.C.
