

Calendar And Announcements

BLOOD DRIVE HONORING DR. CHARLES DREW — June 1, 3, 5, the American Red Cross, 1000 E. Forest Hills Blvd., is asking black organizations to recruit blood donors in honor of Dr. Charles Drew, the renowned black physician who pioneered our modern blood banking system. Give blood, if you can. If your group would like to participate, call 489-6541 or Mrs. Edythe King at 682-4295.

FOOD COOPERATIVES — The next regular meeting of the Durham Chapter, National Black Independent Political Party, will address the need to establish food cooperatives in a presentation by Dr. Dupree of Shaw University. The meeting will be held Thursday, June 11, 7:30 p.m., Union Baptist Church. All interested persons are invited.

SUMMER DAY CAMP — Enroll your child today for the exciting Durham YMCA summer day camp program. Make sure your child has an enjoyable, rewarding summer sharing in fun activities such as swim instruction, free swim, weekly field trips, recreational gymnastics, recreational sports, arts and crafts and much more. Camps will be held at both Durham YMCA branches. For more information, call the Central YMCA, 682-0313 or the Lakewood Y at 489-2610.

SINGLE PARENT TRAINING GROUP — Learn depressurizing techniques, explore cooperative parenting. An educational and enjoyable class. Mondays 7-8:30 p.m., YWCA, 809 Proctor St., July 15-20. Register now. For inexpensive child care, call 688-4396 by June 8.

TENNIS LESSONS are offered at Edison Johnson Recreation Center on an on-going basis Monday and Wednesday mornings at 9 a.m. and 10:30. Cost for 12 hours of instruction is $22 for City residents and $24 for non-residents. Register at Edison Johnson Recreation Center or call 683-4355 for more information. Resource person: Ms. Eileen Witt.

DURHAM COMMITTEE ON THE AFFAIRS OF BLACK PEOPLE — On Thursday, June 4, 7 p.m., the Political Sub-Committee will meet at the Stanford L. Warren Library on Fayetteville Street.

On Monday, June 8, the Health Sub-Committee will meet at 7 p.m., at St. Joseph's AME Church on Fayetteville Street.

LEARNING TO COPE — a film about stress will be shown at Epworth United Methodist Church at 2 p.m., Thursday, June 11. Refreshments and discussion will follow. Public is invited. For more information, contact Mrs. Margaret Shackford, 683-2052.

SUMMER PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN, ages 2½-12, June 8-August 13, Russell Memorial CME Church Child Development Center, 703 S. Alston Ave. Phone 682-1305 or 682-2523.

BULL CITY CARPOOLING PROGRAM Save the gas. Call the one regionally coordinated program, TRI-A-RIDE, (Triangle Area Ridesharing Program), 549-9999, for names of others traveling your route.

CALENDAR ITEMS should reach us no later than Friday before the desired publication week. Two to three weeks prior is even better! Mail to: Calendar, The Carolina Times, P.O. Box 3825, Durham, NC 27702. No charge.

A MULTI MEDIA ART EXHIBIT — by members of Center/Gallery will be on display through June 26 at the N.C. Council on the Status of Women Gallery, 526 N. Wilmington St., Raleigh. Hours are 9-5, Mon.-Fri. For more information, call 733-2455 or 682-6234.

CAREER DAY — The Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) program of Durham Technical Institute is sponsoring a Career Day on Friday, June 5, from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the Lyon Park School facility. The Career Day is open to the public as well as all current and former CETA students. Representatives of business, government, and local institutions will be available to discuss employment and educational opportunities in the Durham area.

HILLSIDE HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1972 — will hold a class meeting on Sunday, June 7, at 5 p.m., at the home of Ms. Veronica Hopkins, 2004 Athens Avenue off of South Alston Avenue. Please bring your address books, so that attempts can be made to contact other class members concerning the ten-year reunion.

ASSISTANCE NEEDED — Because of budgetary problems in the transporting of Chatham County Senior Citizens, the Chapel Hill Senior Citizen Nutrition Site is seeking assistance from concerned persons in the transporting of the eighteen elderly persons from northern Chatham who attend the Chapel Hill Nutrition Site.

Assistance can be rendered in the following ways:

- Persons owning large cars or vans could volunteer transportation once or twice per week.
- Monetary contribution could be made to furnish gasoline for those who can provide vehicles.
- Persons living in northern Orange but working in Chapel Hill could provide rides for the senior citizens in their vicinity.

If you can provide assistance or if you have further questions, call Mrs. Gatha Lassiter, Nutrition Site manager at 929-0492; or come by the Chapel Hill Multipurpose Center.

OPEN AIR CONCERT — The Durham Symphony, in conjunction with the Durham Recreation Department, will present an open-air concert on Sunday, June 7, 4 p.m., in the courtyard of the Edison Johnson Recreation Center on Murray Avenue. (In case of rain, the concert will be held in the Center's auditorium.) Program will include works by Rimski-Korsakov, Richard Strauss, Sousa, Verdi and Dvorak. Admission is free and the public is cordially invited to attend.

FUNDS FOR INDIGENT — Patients at John Umstead Hospital who have no social security or families are in need of spending money for cokes, candy, etc. The patients are allowed $1.50 per week. If you would like to supply a year's spending money for a patient or make a donation to the Indigent Patient Fund, send your check to the Mental Health Association, 212 Albemarle St., Butner marked for the Indigent Patient Fund.

TENNIS COURTS AVAILABLE — The Durham Parks and Recreation Department has tennis courts available for rental. Groups may rent available courts at the rate of $1 per hour per court-day use or $1.25 per hour per court night use. Make tennis a part of your next family or business social. Call Ms. Eileen Witt at 683-4355 to reserve your courts now!

NCCU ARTISTS: NEW HORIZONS — Art exhibit through Summer School, North Carolina Central University Museum of Art. No admission charge. Hours 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Tuesday-Friday; 2-5 p.m., Sunday.

PROJECT LIFT (Learning Information For Today), offers information, reference and referral for adult education, hobbies and classes. LIFT also gets job listings from the Employment Security Commission. For more information, call 683-2626 Ext. 31 or visit PROJECT LIFT, at the Durham County Library, 300 N. Roxboro St. Hours are 9-9 Monday and Tuesday and 9-5:30 Wednesday through Saturday.

CHICKEN DINNER SALE — The Bloodworth Street YMCA, Raleigh, presents its Fifth Annual Chicken Dinner Sale on Saturday, June 6, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m., at the Bloodworth Street YMCA. For further information, contact Henry King at 833-1256.

MARY POTTER REUNION — All Mary Potterites are reminded of the second general reunion to be held in Washington, D.C., July 10, 11, 12. A chartered bus will be leaving Durham. Please contact one of the persons listed for additional information. A Mary Potterite is any one who has been connected with the school in any way. Please respond NOW to: Mrs. Andolia Eaton, 616 Dunbar St., Durham, 688-2489; Mrs. Hallie Crews, 1835 S. Alston Avenue, Durham, 682-4121; or Ellis L. Allen, 2411 Fayetteville St., Durham, 688-7484.

FREE FEATURE MOVIES are shown each Saturday at 3 p.m., in the auditorium of the Durham County Public Library. Plan to see "Gaslight" June 6; "Gay Divorcee" June 13; "Citizen Kane" June 20.

NURSERY-KINDERGARTEN — Applications are now being accepted for the fall session of the North Carolina Central University Nursery-Kindergarten beginning in September. For further information, call 683-6447 or visit the NCCU Nursery-Kindergarten at the Diana S. Dent Home Economics Building at North Carolina Central University.

"THE SEASONED EYE" — is a mixed media exhibition of fifteen mature artists, at Center/Gallery, 118-A E. Main St., Carrboro. Opening is Friday June 5, 8-10 p.m. and the show will run through June 28. Gallery Hours: 11-5 Friday and Saturday; 2-5 Sunday. For more information, call 967-1319.

PERFORMERS & ENTERTAINERS — Bands, musicians, clowns, mimes, jugglers and other performers and entertainers are needed to perform during Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department's Old Fashioned Family Day Fourth of July Celebration on Saturday, July 4. If you are willing to volunteer your time and talents or would like more information, please call Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department at 942-8541, extension 203.

WRITING WORKSHOPS — Writing is a skill that everyone has and yet everyone can improve. A series of three-hour workshops offered by Duke University Office of Continuing Education is designed to help people in a variety of careers to write concisely, attractively and efficiently. The instructor is Ms. Lucy Knight, a free lance writer who now works as Coordinator of Research Support at Duke.

Individual sessions will meet, 6-9 p.m., in the Bivins Building, East Campus. Registration is open to the public without prerequisite. Details may be obtained by calling the Office of Continuing Education, 684-6259.

Schedule is: Tues. June 23-Writing for Professionals; Thurs. June 25-Writing for Medical Professionals; Mon. June 29-Writing for Your Boss; Wed. July 1-Writing Grant Proposals; Mon. July 13-Writing Research Papers.

MUSEUM OF LIFE AND SCIENCE — 433 Murray Avenue, Durham, is open 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday; 1-6 p.m., Sunday. Call 477-0431 for information.

SUMMER CLASSES: There are still spaces in classes, workshops and field trips sponsored by the Museum during the summer. Call weekdays for information and registration. Offerings for preschoolers through adults begin June 15.

SUMMER ACTIVITIES: It is time to sign up for summer activities. Call 477-0431 to learn about art workshops, day camps, children's classes, Junior Curator Program, and adult classes being offered from June 15 through mid-August.

MUSEUM MATINEE: Friday, June 5, 3:30 p.m., two short films "Sheep, Sheep, Sheep" and "Happy Owls."

Saturday, June 6, 3:30 p.m., special touch/talk demonstration with one of the museum's owls.

Sunday, June 7, 3:30 p.m., science fiction film, "The Time Machine."

SUMMER 4-H ACTIVITIES FOR YOUTH — The Durham County Agricultural Extension Service, through the 4-H program, will offer a variety of educational and fun activities during the summer months for youth 9-19 years of age living within Durham County. Registration applications will be honored on a first come basis until workshops are filled. To receive copies of the activities, call Ms. Linda Washburn, Extension Agent 4-H, at 688-2900.

CHUCK DAVIS DANCE COMPANY — will teach several series of classes for six weeks beginning June 16 as part of the Community Services program of the American Dance Festival. For more information call the Durham Arts Council at 682-5519.

SUMMER LEISURE CLASSES — Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department is taking registration for classes in Adult and Youth Piano, Karate, English Handsmocking, Aerobic Dance, Adult and Youth Tennis, Women's Fitness. For more information, call 942-8541, extension 203.

WOMEN'S CENTER AUCTION — Ms. Nancy Lee of WCHL radio will emcee the Orange County Women's Center Auction Saturday, June 6 at 10 a.m. at Carr Mill Mall. (Rain date: June 13). Auctioneers will be Emerson Page of Durham and Ms. Beverly Burke of WTVD-TV News.

Auction items will include articles and services donated by local businesses and members of the community. There will also be a yard sale, refreshments, balloons, and information about the Women's Center and its programs.

TALF MEETING — The Triangle Area Lesbian Feminists will hold their monthly meeting on Saturday, June 6, 7 p.m., at the YWCA, corner of Vickers and Proctor Sts., Durham. There will be a potluck picnic followed by readings and a dance. Bring your own beverages and food. Child care will be provided.

AUCTION AND YARD SALE — The Orange County Women's Center is planning its first major fundraising event for 1981. The Center's Fundraising Committee will hold an auction Saturday, June 6, 10 a.m., at the Carr Mill Mall in Carrboro. Along with the auction there will be a yard sale, refreshments, and information and literature about the Women's Center and its programs. Rain date: June 13.