

Columbia Record Artists On The Move

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Deniece Williams was seen in the Big Apple recently in the company of several fashion designers! The gracious Ms. Williams who was scheduled to begin touring June 5, has slimmed down considerably since her last tour and is looking to make a few additions to her stage wardrobe. Deniece's latest album My Melody is a top 10 R&B hit and in its 8th week inside the hot 100 on the pop charts.

Cheryl Lynn's third Columbia album In the Night, is produced by Ray Parker Jr. scheduled for release in mid June — but you can get a sampling of the LP from the debut single "Shake It Up" available in both a 7 and 12 inch version.

Is there a Doctor in the house? You would be inclined to think so following the response to Walter Jackson's debut single "Tell Me Where It Hurts?" taken from his Columbia album of the same name. It has been reported that due to heavy sales and airplay of the record Walter has been nicknamed "The Doctor" ... Ouch!!!

Maurice and Verdine White have been named to the Board of Directors of the Black United Fund. The BUF provides financial support to Community programs overlooked by such organizations as the United Way.

Silver Anniversary — 1981 marks Johnny Mathis' Silver Anniversary of Song and in commemoration Columbia Records is scheduling a double album to be released sometime this summer entitled The Silver Anniversary Album/The First 25 Years.

Junie Morrison warmed the hearts of five youngsters in Dayton, Ohio recently when he treated them to a day of fun and games at the Cincinnati Zoo. The trip sponsored by June and radio station WDAO was in conjunction with the release of his second solo LP Junie 5.

Le Hot Jazz or Le Jazz Hot — Yes its true — Miles Davis has recorded a new album scheduled for release in July — and yes he is scheduled to perform on July 5 at Avery Fisher Hall in New York as part of the KOOL JAZZ FESTIVAL - NEW YORK. This will mark Miles' first public appearance since September '76 when he performed at the Wollman Rink in Central Park.

Accompanied by 57 of Chicago's finest Symphony musicians, Columbia recording artist Ramsey Lewis performed a one night special benefit concert, May 26, for the Illinois division of the ACLU. The concert took place in Ramsey's home town of Chicago at the Auditorium Theatre. Ramsey's latest LP Three Piece Suite contains four selections arranged by Patrice Rushen....

Forty Years Young ... Dexter Gordon - saxophonist extraordinaire celebrates his 40th Anniversary in the music business this year.

CBS Records in its continued commitment to jazz, hosted an evening entitled "A Tribute to Jazz" at the Black Music Association's Third Annual Conference in Los Angeles, May 26. The evenings entertainment was provided by Columbia recording artist Hubert Laws and Rodney Franklin.
