

Scouts Barry A. Burch and James B. Lawton of Troop and Post 55 were recognized Sunday, May 31, at White Rock Baptist Church, Durham for receiving the Medal of Merit and Certificate of Merit in recognition of Meritorious Action from the Boy Scouts of America.

Barry Burch, an Explorer Scout and Chaplain Aid helped a lady who was having a seizure. While riding on the city bus, Barry aided the lady by stopping her from biting her tongue, and using his handkerchief as a bandage to bind her wrist that was cut on the seat of the bus. He stayed with her and the bus driver until the ambulance came to take her to the hospital. Barry came forward to help the lady when none of the other passengers would.

James Lawton, a Scout and Instructor, gave first aid to his brother, Michael, when he accidentally got a deep gash cut just above his eye. James immediately called their parents. Blood was gushing, so he rushed his
