Engagement Announced

Mrs. Palls L. Jeffreys of 3817 Booker Street, Durham, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Phildalia Jeffreys to Keith B. Davis, son of the late Ms. Willie Davis of New York, N.Y. The bride-elect is a 1981 graduate of NCA&T, Greensboro, in Sales and Visual Merchandising. She is presently employed with Benlees Fashion in Greensboro. The prospective bridegroom is an Industrial Technology student at NCA&T who will graduate in December, 1981. An open wedding ceremony is planned for August 8, at 6 p.m., at St James Church of Christ, 1404 Acadia Street, Durham.

Thrifty Service Club

The Thrifty Service Club held its regular meeting Saturday, July 11, at the home of Mrs. Vergie Mangum on North Roxboro St. Co-hostess was Mrs. Queen Copper.

The meeting opened with devotion conducted by Mrs. Genevieve Rogers. Mrs. Aline Davis presided over discussion of the club's trip to Atlantic City, N.J. in August, the picnic Saturday, July 18, at Duke Park and the club's picnic at the John Umstead Center in Butler.

An honorarium was presented to the president on the occasion of her retirement following 25 years of service at the Dental Research Center, UNC-Chapel Hill. Mrs. Mangum received beautiful gifts from the members for her birthday. They were served a buffet repast.

The hostess was thanked by Ms. Alice Wilson and the meeting was dismissed by Mrs. Marie Harris and Mrs. Mozell Flintall.

Mrs. Mangum's guest was Mrs. Lucille Evans. Other members attending the meeting were Mesdames Rosetta Cobb, Christine Sales, Pauline Boxley, Mary Vanhook, Stattie Russ, Lula Hester, Pearl Walker, Lillie Adams and Rether Core. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Rosetta Cobb.

Guys And Dolls To Meet In Greensboro

GREENSBORO — More than 300 persons are expected to participate in the biennial convention of Guys and Dolls, Inc., a national family organization, July 23-26.

Chapters from Greensboro, Durham, Raleigh, Wilmington, Charlotte, High Point, Fayetteville, South Carolina, Virginia, Indiana and Georgia will join in the program in the Holiday Inn Four Seasons in Greensboro.

Guys and Dolls, Inc., reportedly the only organization in the nation to which all members of the family belong, was founded in Greensboro in 1965 by Mrs. Eula K. Vereen, an assistant professor of home economics at A&T State University.

She will play a key role in the convention, or Karrousel, and will be joined by Ed Butler of Spartanburg, S.C., national president, and Mrs. Delores Hill of Charlotte, national program chairman. President of the host Alpha chapter in Greensboro is Mrs. Pearl Durham. Dr. Richard E. Moore of Greensboro is Karfo Karrousel chairman.

Included in the Karrousel activities will be the president's reception on Thursday, July 23, at 8 p.m., the family brunch on Friday at 10 a.m., the family life banquet on Friday at 6 p.m., and the Torches dance on Friday at 9 p.m.

Saturday's activities will include a talent show, the family picnic at High Point City Lake and the adults' Aladdins dance at 9 p.m. The concluding activity will be a farewell breakfast on Sunday at 8:30 a.m.

Speakers for the Karrousel will include State Senator Henry E. Frye, Greensboro Councilman Dr. Dorothy Bardolph and Mrs. Charlotte Purvis, professional fellow, Bush Institute for Family and Child of the Frank Porter Graham Child Development Center at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill.

Marian's Music Studio In Sunday Recital

People of the Durham Community will long remember the afternoon of July 12. Mrs. Marian W. Williams presented her Studio pupils and friends at the Mount Calvary United Church of Christ, Rev. J.C. Check, pastor.

Mrs. Poole, Mrs. Torain and Mrs. Wigfall served graciously as narrators.

The pupils' parents served as chaperons. Mrs. Williams assisted adults and pupils at the piano or organ.

The people in the audience were thrilled after each rendition, solos, duets and trios. Mrs. Williams received many congratulations. Certificates and Awards were given by Mrs. Williams and the parents of the children awarded Mrs. Williams with a music plaque.

Grand Conference Held In New Orleans
