

"Caribbean Nights" Musical Variety With A Latin Beat On WTBS

Caribbean Nights, a new, star-studded musical variety show from exotic Puerto Rico, USA, will premiere Sunday, August 2 at 11:05 p.m. on SuperStation WTBS, Atlanta. Starring San Juan's top romantic television duo, Judy Gordon and Carlos Conde III, Caribbean Nights presents outstanding variety entertainment each week, set against the backdrop of Puerto Rico's exciting night life, beautiful scenery and unsurpassed romantic charm.

Caribbean Nights will feature the hottest acts from all over the island, including international stars, super-talented singers and dancers and spectacular revues like "Vive La Scandale—A Cabaret On Ice," or "Marcelo's Fiesta Fantastica" of flamenco at its finest. Caribbean Nights will also travel the island over to present acts in a number of diverse locations, from showplaces like San Juan's Palace Hotel and Caribe Hilton, to fascinating historic sites and breathtaking natural settings.

Hosts Judy Gordon and Carlos Conde III have starred in their own weekly, bilingual television talk show, The Judy Gordon Show in San Juan for the past nine years. Together they have presented a score of internationally famous stars, including Ryan O'Neal, Carol Channing, Liza Minnelli, Alberto Franchi, Rita Moreno, Julio Iglesias and many others, as well as top Latin American and local talents.

Special guests scheduled to appear on Caribbean Nights in its first month on the air include Carol Miles, one of Puerto Rico's best known singers in both English and Spanish, and former host of San Juan's Soul Train; The Ken Hamilton and Terry Malone Showband, a singing team backed by a sound group of musicians who have become well-known and loved in both Puerto Rico and mainland USA for their versatile and intense variety; Iris Chacon, seven-time recipient of the "Americas' First Vedette" award (annually bestowed on an artist for her talent as a singer, dancer and actress), along with her husband, Junno Faria, an exceptionally talented musician who plays at least 25 instruments, including saxophone, trombone, drums, piano and horns, to name a few.
