

Ms. Eunice Bradley Weds Dr. Tshabalala

LAKE CITY, Fla. — Ms. Eunice Loretta Bradley and Dr. Mandla Amos Tshabalala, were united in marriage on Saturday, June 6, at the Trinity United Methodist Church here. Dr. Winfred M. Hope performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Eunice Harrison Bradley of Lake City, and the late Lewis James Bradley. The groom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. J.A. Tshabalala of Langa Methodist Manse, Cape Town, South Africa.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Alfonso W. Levy, organist, Mrs. Joyce C. Butler, and Mrs. Deloris Williams, soloists.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, John Harrison of Freeport, N.Y. She wore a formal gown of white poly organza over taffeta, lavishly appliqued with Venice lace. The fitted bodice featured a sweetheart neckline with Venice lace embellished with pearls. The dress had full bishop sleeves accented with Venice lace, trimmed with wide lace cuffs. The A-line skirt was trimmed with a small border of matching lace and featured a pick-up skirt, with an attached cathedral length train. She wore a double-tiered mantilla of imported illusion accented with motifs of Venice lace. She carried a white lace fan bouquet accented with seed pearls and pastel colors of silk roses, carnations, daisies, lilies of the valley, stephanotis, tiege leaves, baby's breath, English ivy and white ribbon streamers accented with pink sweetheart roses.

Ms. Juanita A. Caruthers of Memphis, Tenn., was maid of honor and Mrs. Courtney S. Ferguson of Durham, NC, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Ms. Ruby B. Wiggins, Orlando, sister of the bride; Ms. Georgia B. Malcolm, Decatur, Ga.; Dr. Nanette S. Henderson, Warrenton, NC; Ms. Elaine Curry, Asheville, NC; Ms. Essie B. Smith, Daytona Beach, cousin of the bride; and Ms. Everlena Hamilton, Lake City. They wore formal gowns of pastel colors with matching pastel flowers in their hair. They carried white lace fan bouquets of silk pastel roses, stephanotis, tiege leaves, baby's breath with pastel ribbon streamers.

Shawyn Lockley and Shelia Stewart, cousins of the bride, were flower girls.

Best man was Ulysses Wiggins of Orlando. Usher-groomsman were Bongani Ngcobo, South Africa; Taofeek A. Oshodi, Vince Amigbogu, Nigeria; Emmett Dennis, Liberia; Wa Kambala Muteba, Zaire; Peter Bloxham, Canada; and Dr. Lamon Beecher Henderson, Warrenton, NC. Marion Vonderell Lockley, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a floor-length gown of mint green polyester with a matching stole and accented with a string of pearls and a silk orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at a local hotel. Following a honeymoon trip to Hawaii the couple will reside in Athens, Ga. The bride is employed by the U.S. Forest Service as a research biologist and the groom is an analytical chemist and is employed at the University of Georgia, Athens.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Allen and children of Fayetteville, NC; Bobby Ferguson of Durham, NC; Mrs. Gail King and children, and Miss Yasmine Raysale, all of Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. Sara Harrison and children, Freeport, NY; Mrs. Judy A. Billups and elder son, Ms. Connie Carter and Mrs. Betty Hope, all of Athens, Ga.; Mrs. Rose Bruce of Atlanta, Ga.; Price Malcolm and son of Decatur, Ga.; Mrs. Ruby Williams of Montgomery, Ala.; Dr. and Mrs. Wally Orchard of Johannesburg, South Africa; Mrs. Ruth Andrews of Saint Petersburg, Fla.; Vernon T. Harrison, Fred Harrison, Mrs. Beulah Coverington, Mrs. Pearl Calhoun, Mr. and Mrs. Ennis Ceasea, Rev. and Mrs. Fredrick U. Lamb, Mrs. Willie Mae all of Jacksonville, Fla.; and Benny Thomas of Woods, Ms. Lois Woods, Live Oak, Fla.

Isisettes Open To Girls Between 7 and 18 Years

The Isisettes Youth Club is a national organization under the auspices of the Imperial Court, Daughters of Isis, an auxiliary of the Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of North and South America and its Jurisdictions. The local Isisettes were organized in 1973 by Daughter Louise W. Weeks, a member of Zafa Court No. 41, Daughters of Isis, Zafa Court No. 41, Daughters of Isis affiliated with Zafa Temple No. 176, Prince Hall Shriners.

There are 85 girls in the local group whose ages are between seven and eighteen years. The purpose of the program is to foster integrity, leadership and charity and to inspire young girls to become ladies who will be assets to our community, state and nation.

The Directress of the Isisettes is Daughter Rosalee Sharpe, Past Illustrious Commandress of Zafa Court No. 41. Membership in the Isisettes is open to girls in the community, however, an application blank must be completed and signed by the prospective participant's parents.

Meetings are held on the first Saturday in each month at Zafa Temple No. 176, 2312 South Alston Avenue. Parents of the girls, along with members of the Daughters of Isis, meet regularly and aid in planning and helping to carry out activities.

The Isisettes elect their own officers, conduct their meetings and plan activities under the guidance of the directress. Dues are $1 per month.

The highlight of each year's program is the crowning of Miss Isisette. Funds raised in the contest are used to help sponsor activities for the Isisettes.

During the year, the Isisettes participate in many activities, including roller skating, dances, arts and crafts, charm clinics, talent shows, visiting hospitals and nursing homes, and bazaars.

A marching unit was organized in 1974. The Isisettes have marched in the Homecoming Parades of Hillside High School and each year since 1974, the group has marched in the Homecoming Parade of North Carolina Central University. In addition they have marched in local, state and regional Gala Day parades sponsored by the Prince Hall Shriners in Durham, High Point, Raleigh, Winston-Salem, Charlotte and Hampton, Va. Miss Isisette for the year rides in a car during the parade. As far as is known, the Isisettes is the only marching unit of its kind the immediate area. Their most recent trip was to Myrtle Beach, S.C., for a day of fun on July 25.

Dt. Rebecca Peterson is Illustrious Commandress of Zafa Court No. 41, Daughters of Isis.

Girls wishing to join should contact Mrs. Rosalee Sharpe, 2505 Janet St., Durham, 682-6898 or Mrs. Louise Weeks, 3720 Suffolk St., Durham, 489-3577.

Mrs. Anderson Honored At Retirement Party

A surprise retirement party honoring Mrs. Thomasine Williamston Anderson was held in Oxford on Saturday, August 1, given by her daughters, Mrs. Annette Anderson Exum of Durham and Mrs. Charlene A. Perry and her husband, Dr. Merceda Perry, of Ashboro.

The banquet room was festively decorated and a huge banner on the wall bore the bold inscription "Mrs. Thomasine Williamston Anderson, you've only just begun."

Numerous friends and relatives waited inside the banquet hall to greet the honoree and enjoy her response to the surprise. Entering after her son-in-law, Dr. Perry, to have dinner with just her children, as she thought, Mrs. Anderson was greeted by friends, relatives, some former students and co-workers — many from out of state — who brought beautiful and useful gifts.

Mrs. Annette A. Exum was mistress of ceremonies. The Rev. Harrison Simons, Rector of St. Cyprian's Episcopal Church, offered the invocation and extended a special tribute to Mrs. Anderson's Christian stewardship. Mrs. Charlene A. Perry acknowledged the presence of guests.

Following dinner, music was rendered by the honoree's five grandchildren, tributes given, and the reading of her biography. Dr. Merceda Perry rendered his tribute in an original poem.

Fond memories were shared by Mrs. Demetrias Daniels Dolby, Rev. Simons, Mrs. Gertrude R. Washington, William Henry Thorpe, Charles E. Gregory and Mrs. Alice M. Stewart.

Mrs. Anderson retired as a teacher in the Granville County Schools at the close of the 1980-81 school term, after having served 35 years.

California Blackeye Beans Star In Creole-Style Dish

A city rich with tradition and fine cuisine, New Orleans, the true melting pot of the best of French, Spanish and American cooking, is famous for its Creole dishes.

Creole-Style Blackeyes, a spicy, tomato-sauced dish features California blackeye beans. Distinctive in their look, blackeye beans have a mellow flavor that combines well with many other ingredients. The blackeyes are simmered in a well-seasoned sauce of onion, green pepper, stewed tomatoes and chicken broth. Creole-Style Blackeyes is an excellent accompaniment to chicken, ribs or fish.

- Creole-Style Blackeyes
- | | |
|---|--|
| 1/2 cup chopped onion | 1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce |
| 1/3 cup chopped green pepper | 2 tablespoons chopped parsley |
| 1 tablespoon butter | 1 bay leaf |
| 1-2/3 cups drained, cooked or canned blackeye beans | 1/2 teaspoon chicken bouillon granules |
| 1 can (8 oz.) stewed tomatoes | 1/4 teaspoon celery seed |
| | 1/8 teaspoon each salt and pepper |
- Saute onion and green pepper in butter several minutes. Add remaining ingredients. Simmer, covered, 20 to 30 minutes or until hot and bubbly. Makes 4 servings.
- Serving Tip: Serve with rice and chicken, ribs or fish.
