

Dugger Family Reunion

Dugger Family Reunion Held In Philadelphia

The direct descendants of the late Reverend William H. Dugger and Mrs. Kathy Cornelia Talley, Durham, held their first Family Reunion in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania recently. Genealogists have traced the family roots from Vance County, Oxford and Durham, North Carolina. The families of the late Mary M. Dugger Green and Frances Dugger Marsh selected the "City of Brotherly Love" to meet with their oldest surviving member of the family, Mrs. Kitty B. Cornelia Talley Dugger Curtis. Mrs. Curtis, who celebrated her 86th birthday anniversary on August 1, is the widow of the late John L. Curtis of Durham.

A "Get Acquainted Cocktail Party" was held on Friday at the adjoining home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reed and their daughter, Ms. Tana Reed. Saturday was the focal point of the three day festive occasion. A picnic and banquet were held at the Haddington Community Organization, 55th Street and Haverford Avenue. Activities of the day included reminis-ing, reviewing family portraits, and the Parade of Families. A beautiful scroll of the "Family Tree" was presented to Mrs. Kitty Curtis who responded with an original poem entitled, "Dugger Memoirs". An oil portrait of her late mother, Mrs. Mary M. Dugger Green, was presented to Mrs. Julia Cornelia Patterson, planning coordinator of the family reunion. A magic show and disco were provided for the children in attendance.

A farewell brunch was held for out-of-town guests at the home of Mrs. J. Cornelia Patterson on Sunday. Next year's family reunion is scheduled to take place in Durham.

Relatives and friends were in attendance from North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Washington, D.C., and New York. Those in attendance from Durham were: William A. Marsh, III, John H. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. William Bumpers, Mr. and Mrs. J. Quinton Parker, Michael Parker and guest, Ms. Ann Fulton, Ms. LaQuinta Parker and Mrs. Lucinda Harris.

Retirement Dinner-Dance

On August 8, a buffet dinner and dance were held at the Downtowner Motor Inn to honor Mrs. Lettie B. Herndon on her retirement from the Veterans Administration Hospital. She was feted by her supervisors, co-workers, family and friends. Honors included gifts and tributes of appreciation for her years of dedicated service. A special gift was a beautifully inscribed clock/plaque unit from her supervisors and co-workers.

Mrs. Herndon, an ever-busy person, plans to spend her retirement in further humanitarian and church activities as well as getting in some relaxation.

Happiness Is: Mrs. Frances Stewart Celebrates 109th Birthday

Hillcrest Rest Home was the scene of an unusual occurrence on Friday, August 14 where it would have been a difficult task to place 109 candles on a birthday cake as Mrs. Frances Stewart celebrated her 109th birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Effie Edwards, Celious Stewart and Mrs. Elhamae Bailey were present to help their "centennarian-plus" mother-grandmother enjoy the occasion.

Ms. Vivian H. Walker, a member of St. Joseph's RME Church, accompanied by Fred Mason, Jr., of Emmanuel Temple SDA Church, furnished the music with such songs as "The Old Rugged Cross", "Jacob's Ladder", "Where He Leads Me" and "How Great Thou Art".

The honoree was all smiles and excited as she received many gifts and cards from friends and relatives. A card and flowers were received from Mayor Harry Rodenhizer.

The rest home residents joined in the festive occasion as the singing could be heard throughout the home.
