

106 Tryouts at NCCU Eagles Opening Week

By B. Dawson
N.C. Central's head football coach Henry Lattimore said after the practice session Tuesday, "106 athletes turned out for the Eagles first week of a two-day practice session."

Until the first day of classes (August 31), the tryouts for defending N.C. Central U. will continue on a two-a-day practice session basis. Central has only four days before the 1981 football season opener against Livingstone College (Sept. 5).

During the past week, the Durham Bulls support the Durham Bulls.

B&G Grill Champs Again

By Larry Barber
An old wise saying of- fers that one save the best for last. Well, so it happened with the Durham Recreation Department's softball program. Because of rain delays during the season, the Men's Open Modified Pitch "A"

League was forced into an extra week of regular play; but had last week all to itself to decide Durham's final city champion. This division is also considered the elite of area softball.

Who won the tournament? The same team that wins it every year — B&G Grill — a group of came from W.B. Wright, who lost to the Grill in the championship game Friday night, 8-6. Fittingly, the two clubs also finished one-two during the regular season.

The tournament got under way Monday, August 10, with B&G beating the Jaycees by forfeit, the Cosmopolitan Tap Room downing Week 6-5, and W.B. Wright stopping Peppi's 10-7.
