DANCE CLASSES — Plie, arabesque, attitude, pirouette. These may seem to be words in French, but they represent more — the international language of dance. Men, women, boys and girls can learn that language by enrolling for classes at the New Performing Dance Company School. Classes in modern, ballet, modern jazz, dance exercise, creative dance and tap are available for all ages. Call 688-1138 for information on classes that start Sept. 8.

OPEN AUDITIONS for Durham's Eighth Annual Street Arts Celebration will be held Sunday, August 30, from 3-4 p.m., and on Monday, August 31, from 7-8 p.m., at the Durham Arts Council, 120 Morris St., Durham. For more information, please call 682-5519.

NEW CLUB FORMING — A club is being organized in Durham for physically handicapped persons between the ages of 20 and 40. All interested persons are asked to write Ms. L. Edwards, P.O. Box 1599, Durham, N.C. 27702, giving your name and address. Information will be sent to you regarding the time and place of the first meeting.

KERR DAM ARTS AND CRAFTS JAMBOREE — The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers will sponsor the third annual John H. Kerr Dam and Reservoir Arts and Crafts Jamboree on Sunday, September 6, from 12 noon until 6 p.m., in the Old Picnic Area across from the Resource Manager's Office at Kerr Dam on Virginia Highway No. 4. All amateur and professional artists and craftsmen are invited to participate in the display and sale of items. There will be no entry fee, and prize ribbons will be awarded. Craftsmen from several states are expected to enter their work in pottery, leatherwork, crochet, stained glass, painting, and woodcrafts.

The "Porch Swing Band" from Raleigh will kick off the festivities with a Bluegrass concert Saturday night at 8 p.m., in the North Bend Park Amphitheater at Kerr Dam. The concert is free and open to the public. Camping facilities are available at nearby North Bend Campground.

Craftsmen interested in participating in this event may write to: Sherrill Storm, Park Interpreter, Resource Manager's Office, Rt. 1, Box 76, Boydton, Va. 23917. Or, call 804-738-6662 for more information.

MODIFIED PITCH SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT — The Durham Athletic Officials Association and the Durham Parks and Recreation Department are co-sponsoring the State Modified Pitch Softball Tournament. The tournament will involve sanctioned teams from throughout North Carolina and the tournament champion will advance directly to the national championships. The national championships are to be held in Marietta, Georgia September 4-7. The State tournament will be double elimination and will be played at Southern Boundaries Park in Durham on August 20-24. For more information concerning the tournament, call George Leach or Gene Tomlinson, tournament directors, at 493-1777 or 683-9355, respectively.

BLACK CHILD CONFERENCE — The Eleventh Annual Conference of the National Black Child Development Institute will be held October 8-10, at the Capitol Hilton Hotel, Washington, DC.
