NEW YORK, NY — Some of the top names in show business and government, including President Reagan and Vice President Bush, will join the evening of jazz at the White House in a special tribute to Lionel Hampton, to benefit his center in Harlem, on Thursday, September 10. It's a reward for Lionel serving as a campaign chairman in New York for the Reagan-Bush ticket.

Former Ambassador Andrew Young, already ahead

in the polls for Mayor of Atlanta in this fall's elections, had gained support in recorded messages from former President Jimmy Carter. Andy, incidentally, is slated to come to New York before the local September 10th primary, to aid his former college classmate, David N. Dinkins, in his bid for the Democratic nomination for Manhattan Borough President.

One of the city's biggest personal injury awards was given last week to Mrs. Connie Peer, a bacteriologist for the city Health Department, when a jury awarded her $700,000 for injuries when a Second Avenue bus broke her back in two places as it drove over street potholes. Another $25,000 was given to her husband, Beverly, a bass player for singer Bobby Short.

Show Business: Popular tap dancer Honi Coles off to Los Angeles to do the Rodney Dangerfield show before spending a month in London...Johnny Mathis celebrating his 25th year in show business...They are now casting for actors for "The First," a musical to open in November on Broadway on the life of the late Jackie Robinson. David Alan Grier, a recent Yale graduate with no professional acting experience, has landed the Robinson role...Robin Harmon, a 24-year-old recent Howard University graduate, has been selected as the first black Miss Maryland, to compete in the Miss America contest next month in Atlantic City. She was previously Miss Georgetown and Miss Black D.C....CBS newsman Ed Bradley took unto himself a bride in London, the former Priscilla Coolidge...Ray Charles singing deep blues since a Los Angeles court ordered him to up his monthly payments from $400 to $1,500 monthly in support for his 17-year-old daughter...Gov. Hugh Carey promised singer Hazel Scott he would move a 23-foot piano she has into the Governor's Mansion in Albany. Angel-Carey and Miss Scott's late former husband, Adam Clayton Powell, were close friends in Congress.

Congratulations due to the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity which presented checks totalling $600,000 to the Urban League, NAACP, and the United Negro College Fund, at their recent Washington convention.

The Black Owned Communications Alliance (BOCA), which recently hired Terrie M. Williams as executive director, launching a major "Buy A Black Newspaper" campaign for Thursday, September 17, asking all black Americans to buy only black newspapers to demonstrate the importance of the Black Press. Black radio and television also cooperating.

Job Row: Bronx Democrats have named veteran patent attorney Hansel J. McGee, who is also a member of the city's Taxi and Limosine Commission, as a candidate for the Bronx Civil Court. He is active in the boro's Jackson Democratic Club...NAACP state president Mrs. Hazel Dukes has demanded that millionaire builder Donald Trump, who recently got a $50 million tax concession, to open his employment records to check on possible discrimination. He was recently charged with bias by demonstrations. Former boxing champ Archie Moore has been given a $37,000-a-year job by the Reagan Administration to launch a pilot program in California to help youths fight drugs...William "Billy" Pickens has resigned as chairman of the board of the Studio Museum in Harlem, the second chairman to quit in less than a year...Janet Cooke, who lost her job and the Pulitzer Prize earlier this year because of her series about a non-existent heroin addict, and the Washington Post are being sued by a D. C. Board of Education member for $1.7 million in compensatory damages and $7 million in punitive damages over the articles.

"I Am Your Florist" by Buster Cards, is the name of Harlem's newest full-service florist showp, at 138th Street and 7th Avenue, which opens its doors the week before Labor Day.

It was wall-to-wall attendance at the La Famille last week when rising globe-trotting author and movie producer Rudolph Johnson, Jr., held an autographing party for his new book, Opium, which traces the world's narcotics traffic. The book is destined to become a best seller and already there are discussions for a possible movie version.

Historians now feel definitely assured that a black man, Abraham Pearce, was among the first settlers in 1623 in Plymouth, Mass., home of the nation's founding fathers. The records revealed that he was a free man, voted, and owned property, and they are now putting him in the record books.

Former Manhattan Borough President Percy E. Sutton, perhaps one of the nation's fastest rising businessmen, black or white, engaged in an exciting new project that will present a new concept in cable television. His Black Music Cable Television Network will have disc jockey format with news and commentaries focusing on the black community.
