

Bishop Adams conducting Rap Session with youths

Rev. Easley Communion Service Preacher

Mrs. Easley Makes Remarks

Dr. Dolly D. Adams conducts

Rev. Philip R. Cousin, Jr. preaching during assembly

TALENT NIGHT

Dr. Helen G. Edmonds, NCCU Distinguished Professor Emerita bringing greetings

First Annual AME Church Young People's Retreat

By Mrs. Elva P. DeJarmon
Publicity Chairman for the Retreat

"Networking for Christ in the 80's" was the theme of the First Annual Young People's Department Retreat of the Second Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church held August 7-9 on the campus of North Carolina Central University in Durham. The focus of the Retreat was "Leadership Development".

Bishop John Hurst Adams, the district's leader, encouraged the youth to "enlarge their imagination, insight and understanding of The Word, The World, and The Church." Over 800 YPD'ers and their chaperones registered for the retreat and over 1,000 persons were in attendance.

Dr. Dolly Deselle Adams, wife of the bishop, and Episcopal Supervisor of Missions for the Second Episcopal District, was responsible for the general coordination of the retreat. Mrs. Ora L. Easley, wife of Rev. W. W. Easley, Jr. minister of Saint Joseph's AME Church, and also the Second Episcopal District Director of the YPD, served as retreat director. Chancellor Albert N. Whiting of North Carolina Central University and Rev. Easley, pastor of Saint Joseph's, were the official hosts.

Dr. Priscilla Hilliard Former Chairman, White House Conference On Families in her workshop on

POOL PARTY

DISCO

YPD'er Asks Bishop A Question During "Rap Session"

WORKSHOP

HOOP TIME

YPD'ers Receive Communion at St. Joseph's