DANCE CLASSES — Plie, arabesque, attitude, piroette. These may seem to be words in French, but they represent more — the international language of dance. Men, women, boys and girls can learn that language by enrolling for classes at the New Performing Dance Company School. Classes in modern, ballet, modern jazz, dance exercise, creative dance and tap are available for all ages. Call 688-1138 for information on classes that start Sept. 8.

CHAPEL HILL TRANSIT will not operate any service on Monday, September 7, Labor Day. Full services will resume on Tuesday, September 8. Additional information can be obtained by calling 942-5174.

NEW CLUB FORMING — A club is being organized in Durham for physically handicapped persons between the ages of 20 and 40. All interested persons are asked to write Ms. L. Edwards, P.O. Box 1599, Durham, N.C. 27702, giving your name and address. Information will be sent to you regarding the time and place of the first meeting.

KERR DAM ARTS AND CRAFTS JAMBOREE — The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers will sponsor the third annual John H. Kerr Dam and Reservoir Arts and Crafts Jamboree on Sunday, September 6, from 12 noon until 6 p.m., in the Old Picnic Area across from the Resource Manager's Office at Kerr Dam on Virginia Highway No. 4. All amateur and professional artists and craftsmen are invited to participate in the display and sale of items. There will be no entry fee, and prize ribbons will be awarded. Craftsmen from several states are expected to enter their work in pottery, leatherwork, crochet, stained glass, painting, and woodcrafts.

The "Porch Swing Band" from Raleigh will kick off the festivities with a Bluegrass concert Saturday night at 8 p.m., in the North Bend Park Amphitheater at Kerr Dam. The concert is free and open to the public. Camping facilities are available at nearby North Bend Campground.

Craftsmen interested in participating in this event may write to: Sherrill Storm, Park Interpreter, Resource Manager's Office, Rt. 1, Box 76, Boydton, Va. 23917. Or, call 804-738-6662 for more information.

DURHAM COMMUNITY RESOURCES — Information gathering for Durham County Library's 1981 Directory of Durham Community Resources is nearing completion. Any local organizations or agencies which have not been contacted for inclusion in this updated edition should call the library at 683-2626 and talk with either Nancy Blood or Linda Payne. The deadline for receiving information is Friday, September 11.

Scheduled for publication this fall, the directory lists and describes agencies and organizations offering services and information to the people of Durham.

BLACK CHILD CONFERENCE — The Eleventh Annual Conference of the National Black Child Development Institute will be held October 8-10, at the Capitol Hilton Hotel, Washington, DC.

A special block of rooms at the Hilton has been reserved at greatly reduced rates for conference participants. This block will be released for general reservations after September 16. Deadline for pre-registration for the conference is September 18.
