Family Pays Tribute To Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett

On August 30, Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett of Raleigh, were honored by the Bennett Family for the many services and deeds of kindness rendered to their family and friends. The setting for the occasion was the home of Calvin and Catherine Hemingway in Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett were presented gifts, a plaque and a money tree. Other activities included a prayer, scripture, songs, a piano solo, poems, dances, dramatizations and personal tributes by members and friends of the Bennett Family. A delicious meal was served.

Those in attendance were Thomas and Doris Bennett and their sons, Thomas and Warren; Jessie Henry of Raleigh; Elizabeth Boswell and Lydia Bennett of Wadesboro; Cora Tillman and Carrie T. Dublin of Washington, D.C.; Mary B. Patterson of Rockingham; Charles and Willie Bennett and their sons, Charles, Gary and Ronnie of Fayetteville; James and Frances Springer, Emma Marable, Gwendolyn Rinehart, Sherri Rinehart, Leonard and Clontonia Stewart, Annie Lee Ashford and Clarice Wilkinson of Durham.

John and Beatrice Bennett's children who could not attend called to congratulate them during the occasion. Leonard and Mary Sturdivant of Wadesboro could not attend but sent their best wishes.

The honorees were later presented a photo album with scenes commemorating the occasion.
