

Calendar and Announcements

FREE MOVIE — The Durham County Public Library presents a feature movie each Saturday at 3 p.m., in the auditorium. No admission is charged. Plan to see "Awful Truth" Sept. 19 and "Goodbye Mr. Chips" Sept. 26.

PEER COUNSELING-LIFE WORK PLANNING CENTER — at the Office of Continuing Education, Duke University, is now offering the 1981 revised Strong Campbell Interest Inventory, in addition to other services. The Strong Campbell is a measuring instrument used to assist people in making career and life-work decisions.

For further information, contact Peer Counseling-Life Work Planning, 684-6259.

THE 8TH ANNUAL STREET ARTS CELEBRATION, sponsored by the Durham Arts Council, will be held on Saturday, Sept. 19, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. and Sunday, September 20, 1-5 p.m. Raindates Sept. 26-27.

THEATRE IN THE PARK starts its fall season off with the Tennessee Williams blockbuster, "Night of the Iguana", Sept. 25-26 and Oct. 2-4. This engrossing drama, set on a tropical paradise, will greatly entertain you while offering the best in fine theatre. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. Tickets $4 for adults; $3 for students and seniors. For reservations call 755-6058 today.

REGISTRATION FOR DURHAM TECHNICAL INSTITUTE'S fall quarter classes will be held at Northgate Mall Friday, Sept. 18, from 11 a.m. until 8 p.m. Registration can also be completed at Durham Tech until classes begin September 30. For more information, contact Durham Tech's Admissions Office at 596-9311, extension 336.

JOB CORPS INFORMATION — Young women wishing information about the opportunities available through Job Corps may call the WICS office, 688-4396, or the project director at 489-2593.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED A 15-year old boy needs a "big brother" to encourage good school performance and participation in recreational activities. He has experienced some involvement with the juvenile court and would greatly benefit from a positive male role model. To learn more about this specific case, and other opportunities, contact the Volunteer Services Bureau at 688-8977, weekdays, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

EXPEDITION TO EGYPT — The North Carolina Museum of Life and Science is sponsoring an expedition to Egypt October 11-28, 1981.

The pitched sounds of children playing and merchants bartering in the narrow winding streets of the Khan el-Khalili bazaar; the soft, brightly colored fabrics of mid-Eastern garb; aromas of spices in the breeze; and the mesmerizing chants of Moslems at prayer arouse the senses of all who venture there. Climbing to the imposing Citadel perched high above this "City of 1,000 Years," the panoramic view of Cairo welcomes Explorers.

The first stop on tour is the Egyptian Antiquities Museum where the world's greatest collection of mummies, paintings, statues, furniture, and models aids travelers' comprehension of a past culture. Of prime interest are the exquisite golden objects encrusted with gems excavated from the tomb of King Tutankhamun.

The highlight of the tour is the visit to the great Pyramids at Giza and the Sphinx, facing east and awaiting the rising sun. The mysteries of the pyramids and sphinx unfold in a most fascinating and entertaining manner during the evening Sound and Light Performance.

Travel by motor coach to Sakkara, located near the ancient city of Memphis. This burial ground for nobility is dominated by a step pyramid predating those at Giza. Scholars of ancient history have been greatly enlightened by art objects and engravings found in this delta.

Fly southward to the famous temples at Abu Simbel. These shrines, commissioned by Ramses II, were carved into rock cliffs and have been elevated to a plateau above the flood plain. . . the greatest achievement of fifty nations in this century. Proceed to Aswan, known for the dam that harnessed the flooding Nile and changed the destiny of Egypt.

Board a luxurious ship in Aswan and cruise the Nile past the temple ruins of Esna, Edfu and Kom Ombo to Luxor. Visit the Valley of the Kings, The Valley of the Queens and more.

The essence of Egypt is ever present in its antiquities. Join fellow "Explorers" on this exciting expedition into the ancient past. For information, call (919) 477-0431.

SIXTY OR OVER? The Retired Senior Volunteer Program needs volunteers to transport a hearing impaired four year old to and from a school in Burlington on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. (School hours are 9 a.m.-12 noon.) The child lives in the South Square Mall area. The teacher would be glad to have the volunteer help in the classroom during the three-hour wait. Volunteers will be reimbursed 25¢ per mile.

RSVP provides travel reimbursement and three types of free insurance. For more information, call Ms. Helen Pressley or Ms. Kathy Walters, 596-9311, extension 321, Durham Technical Institute.

RECYCLING Reynolds recycles at Northgate Shopping Center, every Tuesday through Saturday, 9-11 a.m.

Bring cans in a clear plastic bag, and other pieces cut to lengths not exceeding three feet and tightly bound. Other recyclable aluminum includes tubing, siding, pots, pans and cast parts. You will be paid cash on the spot.

Reynolds pays 30¢ per pound for cans and 25¢ per pound for scrap.

For exact pricing and local recycling details, call toll free 1-800-228-2525.

THE HISTORY AND DRAMA OF TUDOR ENGLAND — is the theme of the Chapel Hill Public Library's free fall film series. Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 7 p.m., in the Library Meeting Room, Boundary Street Entrance.

September 22-23:

"The Six Wives of Henry VIII, Part I: Catherine of Aragon" (1976) 90 min.

Spanish Princess Catherine, widow of Henry's older brother, marries him, bears his daughter Mary, and lives happily with him for 18 years.

SEARCHING FOR FINANCIAL AID — Start with EOC (Educational Opportunity Center), 208 S. Main St., Roxboro. They have the latest information on federal, campus-based and independent aid funds.

Financial Aid Forms (FAF), Family Financial Statements (FFS) and Basic Educational Opportunity Grant (BEOG) applications are available at EOC. They can help complete the forms quickly and accurately. Call EOC today (599-0257).

"CONTEMPORARY PRINTMAKERS," an invitational exhibit, runs through September 27 at Center/Gallery, 118-A E. Main St., Carrboro. Hours are 11-5 on Friday and Saturday and 2-5 on Sunday. A talk by the artists on Thursday, September 17, 8 p.m., is open to the public free of charge. For more information call 967-1316.

THE MANY FACES OF BLOOMSBURY — A fall 1981 series of seminars, lectures, and films focusing on the Bloomsbury group of artists and intellectuals is being offered by the Durham Public Library in co-sponsorship with the Duke University Office of Continuing Education. These programs are assisted by the North Carolina Humanities Committee and are open free of charge to the public.

Guest speakers will lecture on various aspects of Bloomsbury: Next lecture, the importance of Virginia Woolf's letters and diaries (September 23), women and food in Woolf's fiction (September 30), Keynesian economics (November 4), and Roger Fry on modern art (November 11).

A one-afternoon film festival on October 25 will feature movies about the Bloomsbury group, especially Virginia Woolf and E.M. Forster.

Enrollment is required for daytime and evening seminars on Virginia Woolf, E.M. Forster, and the art of biography. Registration forms and details of entire series are available from the Office of Continuing Education, 107 Bivins, on Duke's East Campus, and main and branch Durham County Libraries. For more information, call 684-6259.

THE DURHAM AMERICAN RED CROSS — offers free monthly blood pressure screening and education clinics at its center, 1000 E. Forest Hills Blvd. Red Cross volunteer nurses provide this service which is open to all ages. The regular screening day has been changed to the third Thursday in each month, except in October, for the remainder of this year. Hours are 10 a.m.-2 p.m. October 29, November 19, December 17.

For more information, call the Red Cross office, 489-6541.

AFTER SCHOOL PROGRAM — The Bloodworth St. YMCA in Raleigh has an After-School Program. For information, call the Administrative Office, Monday through Friday between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. 833-1256 or 833-4430.

THE AFTERNOON ROOM — The Durham Parks and Recreation Department and the Durham Community Education Program conducts "The Afternoon Room," an after school recreation program for pre-teens at the East End, Y.E. Smith, and George Watts schools. The program operates on school days, Monday through Friday from 2:30-5:30 p.m. The program will continue through June 4, 1982. There is a small weekly registration fee for this program.

For more information call Gaston Patterson at 683-4355 or the Durham City Community Education Program at 682-5786 or 682-5787.

DURHAM COMMITTEE ON THE AFFAIRS OF BLACK PEOPLE — Housing Committee meeting, 9 a.m. Edgemont, Saturday, September 19.

Voter Registration Books close for voting in November General Election — October 5.

SOUTHERN HARVEST, — a weekly film series focusing on southern folk art, will be presented by the YWCA and Durham Technical Institute during the month of October. The films are free and open to the public.

Films will be shown at the YWCA every Sunday, from October 4-25, 3-4 p.m. You can also see the films at Durham Tech every Thursday, starting October 8 and ending October 29, 12:30-1:30 p.m.

Call the YWCA (688-4396) or DTI (596-9311, ext. 335) for more information.

STRUCTURES — and exhibit of painting by Harriet Diamond, opens on Friday, Oct. 9, 8-10 p.m. at Center/Gallery. The show includes paintings of figures and landscape. "Structures" continues through Nov. 1 with a talk by the artist on Thurs. October 22 at 8 p.m.

Center/Gallery is located in Carrboro at 118A East Main Street above Tumbleweed Cyclery. Gallery hours are 11 to 5 on Friday and Saturday and 2-5 on Sunday. All events are open to the public free of charge. For more information, call 967-1316.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED — The Durham Arts Council will sponsor the 8th Annual Street Arts Celebration on Saturday, September 19, 10-5 and Sunday, September 20, 1-5. Lots of local craftsmen, artists, musicians, and a variety of local and international foods will make Durham's downtown area come alive.

Over 300 volunteers are needed for a number of jobs — site production, stage managers, children's area and balloon blower-uppers and more. For more information, call 682-5519.

TRIANGLE J COUNCIL MEETING — The annual dinner meeting of the Triangle J Council of Governments will be held Wednesday, September 23, at the Jane McKimmon Center, Gorman Street & Western Boulevard, Raleigh. Social hour begin at 6:30, dinner at 7:30. Reservations should be made by September 18.

CRAFT CLASS — POTTERY I: Monday, 7-10 p.m., September 28-November 16 or Tuesday, 7-10 p.m., September 29-November 17. Basic instruction involving wheel throwing and hand building. Will explore fundamentals of clay and glaze. Tuition $35, supply fee, $10. Other classes being offered this fall are Pottery II, Photography I, Jewelry Making, Quilting, and Family Clay. Registration ends September 25 and is being taken on first-come first-serve basis. Duke University Union Craft Center. For more information, call 684-6213.