A timely discussion on money making projects for the year ensued. There were a bake sale, dish cloth sale and a sale for club members. An invitation was extended to take part in Indian Summer Vintage, September 8-9 at South Square Mall. Plummer and Miller agreed to make arrangements to exhibit for the Fall Show.

A delicious repast was served by the hostess to the following members: Mmes. Ethel Allen, Mary Rebecca Daye, Virgie Davis, A. Horton, Betty Miller, Bernice Plummer and Mary Plummer. The home of the hostess was decorated with a variety of house plants.

Egerton on Nelson St., to see the arrangements of flower beds on different levels. Each member brought a beautiful plant on leaving. A report was given from the N.C. Federation of Garden Clubs in Winston-Salem. Their next jaunt was to the Botanical Gardens in Chapel Hill where they participated in all activities, won a number of plants and were amazed at how little they knew about plants and gardening. They will return to the Botanical Gardens in a few days to participate in the "Dig", where participants dig up flowers, blooming shrubbery, all types of plants and herbs that can be grown in winter.

The club's final summer project will be the annual picnic for the ladies and gentlemen of the Sun-Set Home, where everyone will take part in games and enjoy delicious food. The meeting was closed with Mrs. W.B. Saunders as the hostess for an enjoyable evening.
