

Bulls Fall To A&T Aggies 19-18

By B. Dawson
GREENSBORO — N.C. A&T rallied in the fourth quarter to defeat J.C. Smith 19-18 last Saturday at the new Aggie Stadium before 12,500 spectators. A&T's winning score came on an 18-yard touchdown pass from freshman quarterback Stevan Lynn to wide receiver Toby Macon with 29 seconds remaining in the contest. J.C. Smith scored in the first period on a one-yard run by fullback Jeff Steele. Smith's tailback Darrell Welsey added another TD from six yards out to give the Golden Bulls an early 12-0 lead. Both conversion attempts were unsuccessful. The Aggies got on the scoreboard with 3:29 remaining in the second ball game finally came true Friday when Broden, Brogden, Shepard and Rogers-Herr — all junior high schools — played at Durham County Stadium. The junior high school games are normally played on Thursdays at 4 o'clock, but Bradshaw wanted the parents to come out and see their children play. So the first game started at 6:30 and the second game following.

played first with Brogden winning 12-8. Shepard and Rogers-Herr played the second game with Rogers-Herr winning 36-0. period on an 11-yard touchdown run by senior running back Charlie "Soul Train" Sutton. Sutton gained 118 yards on 25 carries against J.C. Smith. The Aggies trailed 6-12 at the end of the first half.

nathy dashed 18 yards into the Aggie end zone, pushing J.C. Smith ahead 18-6. The fourth quarter was dominated by A&T State. With 12:50 left in the game, Aggie tailback Wayman Pitts scored from 8 yards out. The Aggies then trailed 18-12 until Lynn's winning pass connection to Macon with :29 remaining to give the Aggies a victory over J.C. Smith. A&T's conference record is 0-2 and 2-2 overall.

MEAC To Hold Basketball Clinic

The Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference will conduct its annual Basketball Coaches and Officials Clinic, October 11, at the Happy Inn 1-85 in Durham. Registration begins at 8:00 a.m. in the Knox Room, with the meeting slated to start at 8:30 a.m. MEAC Commissioner Ken Free and Ed Boyd, MEAC Supervisor of Officials, will preside. The MEAC Head Basketball Coaches are: Jack "Cy" McClairn (Bethune-Cookman College), Ajac Triplett (Delaware State College), James "Josh" Giles (Florida A&M University), A.B. Williamson (Howard University), Kirkland Hall (Maryland-Eastern Shore, University), Don Corbett (North Carolina A&T State University), and Johnny Jones (South Carolina State College). Williamson became the first MEAC coach to participate in the NCAA Division I Basketball Championships, when he took his Bison to UCLA's Pauley Pavilion last March, and Corbett became only the third league coach to compete in the NIT, when the Aggies met Duke in Durham last March. Hall has guided the Hawks to the NAIA MEAC after a two year absence from the conference.

Howard Soccer Team Ranked Ninth In Nation

The Howard University Soccer Team has a new coach, but retains the same old winning ways. New head mentor, Keith Tucker, is a former Howard soccer player (1975-78) and was an assistant to Lincoln Phillips until last season. The Bison are currently undefeated, ranked ninth nationally, and second in the Mid-Atlantic Region behind Old Dominion. They have outscored opponents 33 goals to 11 with five victories over the Navel Academy (1-0), James Madison (2-0), Rutgers, Camden (3-1), American (2-1), and Towson (4-3). The Bison won NCAA national championships in 1971 and 1974, went 9-2-2 last season, and appear to be headed for another banner year.
