

Fayetteville Happenings

By Mrs. T.H. Kinney

We realize it's fall folks! It has been reported that clouds of monarch butterflies are passing through our state on their way to Mexico.

Volunteers are still being needed and are urged to continue their vital work. Feel free to give your "fair share."

You can enjoy "George Dandin" a French farce by Moliere at the O'Hanlon Outdoor Theater from October 8, 9, 10 at 4 p.m., at Methodist College.

The 12th Hodges, McCalop and Smith's nationwide annual Family Reunion was held at First Baptist Church in Turkey, N.C., on Sunday afternoon.

The president, Thomas Hodges, welcomed all. A memorial service was conducted by the founder, Mrs. Odell Frederick Hodges, and Mrs. Hannah Hodges. Visitors and other announcements were recognized. Music was rendered by the various talented families. Mrs. Addie H. Price served and conducted the family survey. Gary Price introduced those who participated in the program. Remarks were made by Rev. White and Rev. Boomer. Feast and fellowship followed the business meeting.

The Lamplighters and their guests enjoyed a joyous evening at the Main NCO Club, Fort Bragg Friday evening past. Music was rendered by the Mixed Generations.

Parents and teachers held their PTA meeting on Tuesday past at the Edgewood Middle School. New teachers were introduced.

Mrs. Kinney enjoyed the company of Mrs. E. Williams, Ms. C.S. Hill, Mrs. J. McKinney, Mrs. R. Goodwyn and Mrs. M. Wilkes on Saturday evening.

Miss Cheryl Bratcher and Jerry Hollingsworth, both of nearby Raeford, were married recently in Silver Grove Church.

The bride is the foster daughter of Mrs. Retha Long. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Clare Hollingsworth.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall following the ceremony, hosted by Mrs. Retha Long and George Isabel.

The bride is a graduate of King's Business College in Raleigh. The bridegroom is a graduate of Hoke High School and is serving in the Navy. The couple will live in Fort Jackson, S.C.

Various officials have proclaimed the month of October as Toastmistress Month. Toastmistress members around the world plan various activities celebrating and honoring founders. Members of all clubs share experiences and participate in activities. They love and use our language with grace and facility.

The Cumberland County Human Relations Advisory Commission met Wednesday afternoon in a public hearing room of the old courthouse on Gillespie Street.

Reading for Poetry Forum: Fields of Earth '81 from 3-5 p.m. Enjoy on October 11, 18 and 25 at the Fayetteville Museum.

Funeral services for Mrs. Maggie Walker, 57, of 6703 Carnation Circle were held on Wednesday afternoon in the Macedonia Baptist Church in Ludowici, Ga. Sympathy is extended especially to Mrs. Georgiana Marshall, Mrs. Lumanda Boyd, Mrs. Jackie Boyd and Mrs. Lula Wallace, all of Fayetteville.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the members of the family of the late William Stanton who was funeralized at the Old Clio United Methodist Church in Clio, S.C., on Sunday past.

Golden: Not Forgotten

Royal Prince Lodge No. 8 and Genesis Chapter No. 8 of United National Free and Accepted Masons and Order of Eastern Star sponsored a birthday party and social hour on September 19 with thirty residents who are now experiencing their "golden years" at the Pine Knoll Rest Home on Apex Highway. The birthday parties have been sponsored on a monthly basis as of June, 1981.

United National Free and Accepted Masons and Order of Eastern Star is a Scottish Rite Affiliation and the National Headquarters is located in Wilmington, N.C. The Supreme Grand Master is Ill. Windell Daniel, 33rd and the Supreme Grand Matron is Sister Gwendolyn Moore.

Trip To Mountains

The ushers of Covenant United Presbyterian Church are sponsoring a trip to the mountains, Saturday, October 17. The cost is $15 per person. If you are interested, call 596-5719 after 6 p.m.

Bridge Winners

College View Duplicate Bridge Club winners for October 1 were: First place—Mary Duncan and Doug Kennitz, second place—Dorothy M. Mewborn and Fred McNeill, third place—Hedy Echard and Tom Hunt, tied for fourth and fifth places—Curtis and Minnie Norris and Mary Pinson and Connie Patillo.

Spirited Spiff-Ups

One of the nicest ways to inject personality into a room without buying a single stick of furniture is changing your floor covering. And, one of the most economical floors to put down that will enliven even the most dreary decor is a resilient flooring. Floor Motif Enlivens Area If you haven't visited your local floor covering store recently, you're in for a treat. Yesterday's dull, speckled linoleum has given way to today's bold, bright "no-wax" sheet vinyls that run the gamut from decorative ceramic prints to country wood floor effects.

Corona Street Club To Celebrate 9th Anniversary

The Corona Street Community Club will celebrate its Ninth Anniversary on Sunday, October 11, at 4 p.m., at Bell-Yeager Free Will Baptist Church on Cornwallis Road. Several singing groups will present music. The public is invited. Mrs. Annie Lee is president. Dr. David H. Bell is pastor.

Mrs. Bertha Evans, her daughter Beverly and granddaughter report an enjoyable vacation during September 21-26. They motored to Charleston, S.C., Orlando, Florida where they visited Disney World, Sea World, Circus World, Marine Land and returned home by way of Atlanta, Ga., where they spent two nights.

A surprise birthday party was given for Miss Linda Hamlet Friday night, September 25, at her home in Rougemont by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Hamlet and her sisters.

Miss Lawanda Lawson has recently returned from a trip to Los Angeles, California where she visited friends and relatives. She also went to Arizona, New Mexico and several cities in Texas.

Sincere sympathy to the families of the following: Robert Prayloe, Matthew Brown, William Farrington, Robert Taylor, Raymond Cotton, Earnestine Tilley, Rev. Clerin Harper, Mrs. Luvenia Banks Tapp, William Richmond, Mrs. E. Dolores Blue.

Durham Social Notes Of Interests

By Mrs. Symner Daye
