

Ms. Chavis Named Hostess/Producer of "Images"

Doneva Chavis-Spooner has recently accepted the position as Hostess/Producer of Durham Cablevision Program Image. Image is a very informal program expressed best by its theme song, "In the Name of Love" taken from Grover Washington's album Winelight. The show deals with various area personalities which form strong images in the community.

Ms. Chavis, a 1972 graduate of Northern Nash

Senior High School, Rocky Mount, majored in Visual Communications/Television Art at North Carolina Central University. While in high school and college she worked as Promotion Manager and Announcer for Evan-Redd Productions on television shows Heritage of Hope and Out of the Depths.

In 1975 she joined the promotion department at WTVD-TV Channel 11 where she coordinated the station through the initial change of its image and the development of the 11 Together concept. Earlier this year Ms. Chavis went to WDNC Radio as Traffic Manager. In addition to her production of Image, she is Traffic Manager at WLFL-TV Channel 22, a new independent UHF station which will be on air in late October.

Ms. Chavis has high hopes for Images this season and is pleased with the response and reviews the premiere on September 14th received. The show airs four times a week on Durham Cablevision Channel 8. She says, "It's hard work, harder than the average viewer realizes, but my parents and my children are my greatest sources of wisdom and inspiration and I'm thankful."

She is the daughter of Drs. K. Z. and Geneva Chavis of Nash County.

She is the former 1972 Miss Black North Carolina and was the first black to participate in the local Miss Rocky Mount Pageant. She serves as promotion consultant to Oaktree Enterprises for Boxing Exhibitions in North Carolina. She is currently recording a debut rhythm and blues album.

Ms. Chavis resides in Durham and is the mother of three children, Gerald, 7, and twins Edward and Vytara, 5.
