

Defensive Struggle Turns To Offensive Show

Bears Score Four Times In 4th To Dump Eagles

North Carolina Central and Morgan State squared off in what was to be a defensive struggle of nationally ranked units. The Eagles were fifth in the NAIA; Morgan 4th in the NCAA. The first half saw Central on top 14-0 thanks to a pair of touchdowns by freshman sensation Gerald Fraylon. It was a typical first half—Morgan getting 13 yards rushing, 20 yards passing and Central amassing 53 and 4 respectively.

The third period offered more of the same except for an 89 yard drive by Morgan State that ended with Phoenix Dinkins going 19 yards for the score with 5:33 left.

But oh what a fourth period—Morgan scored four times, Central twice. MSU's Lester Speight started off the fireworks with a block of Joey Day's punt which was recovered by Malcolm Hunter in the end zone. It was then all tied up at 14-all with 14:19 left in the game.

Central moved 26 yards following the ensuing kickoff but was forced to punt. From its 19, MSU quarterback Darrell Coulter, who had been benched for the first half, dropped back to pass and had his pass intercepted by Chris McKinstry at the NCCU 22. McKinstry returned the ball to the 11. The Eagles got to the 1 thanks to a 13 yard interference penalty against the Bears before Fraylon scored his third of the day. 9:17 to go, NCCU 21, MSU 14.

Anthony Page brought the kickoff back to the MSU 47. Dinkins went off right tackle four yards before hitting the same hole for 49 yards and the score. It was knotted up once again 21-all with 8:18 left.

Allen Pierce returned the Bears kick to the NCCU 43. Fraylon dropped back and tossed a 32 yard pass to Victor Hunter. A face mask penalty was tacked on to the gain placing the ball at the MSU 13. Freshman tailback Clifton Kersey went 13 yards on a draw play to score. A bad snap resulted in Hunter trying a pass that was incomplete. The Eagles were back on top 27-21 at the 7:52 mark.

But more was in store. Morgan answered with a 79 yard drive of seven plays with Coulter hitting Cornelius Johnson on a 43-yard scoring play. Davi Booker, who kicked of the extra points, split the uprights, giving the Bears their first lead of the game 28-27 with 4:53 remaining.

Central took the ball from its 20 moving to its 45 but lost the ball on downs when Fraylon was a yard short on fourth down. From there Morgan took six plays and 2 minutes 14 seconds to put up the final score. Coulter went the final six yards.

The seemingly impregnable Eagles defense which had been allowing only 67.3 yards rushing per game gave up 238 yards to Morgan—228 in the second half. It was the most since the A&T game of last year.

NCCU was held to 138 yards rushing and 67 passing.

Dinkins led all rushers with 105 yards in 12 attempts. He became the Bennie Tate led the Eagles with 80 yards in 18 carries.

Football Fever To Rage In Triangle

By Elson Armstrong, Jr. If you notice that for the past couple of days certain people around you have been acting kind of strange — such as painting funny little signs, stocking up on party items, placing rolls of tissue in their cars, and placing all kinds of wagers — please don't call the nearest psych ward. Your neighbors have simply caught football fever and this coming Saturday it will reach severe limits in the Triangle as Duke and Clemson square off in Durham and about the same time State and Carolina will be colliding in Raleigh.

Both games could very well sell out (State and Carolina has been sold out for months), so there could very well be over 90,000 footballers within twenty minutes of each other. If that's not enough, the State Fair will be in full swing in Raleigh. So there may be an additional 100,000 festive people in the area of the Carolina-State shootout!

In Durham, feelings will be running high as undefeated, top ten-ranked Clemson (5-0) takes on Duke's surging

Blue Devils (3-2) who've won three straight games for the first time since 1977 and are coming off a 14-7 thrilling win over previously unbeaten Virginia Tech.

Clemson will definitely have revenge in mind. Last year Duke trampled the Tigers in South Carolina 34-17 to completely ruin Clemson's homecoming.

This time, Duke will be celebrating Homecoming and several Tiger players have let it be known that they want to return the favor in Durham.

The Blue Devils are playing with new-found confidence both on offense and defense and Ben Bennett is back at QB, but Ron Sally is more than able to take charge again, if needed.

Over in Raleigh, the very ground may tremble as top five-rated UNC

(5-0) takes on bitter rival State (4-1) before what may very well be a Carter-Finley record crowd of well over 54,000. Carolina has won the last two from State and the Wolfpack is itching to put a dent in the Tar Heel express which has been riding high for over two years.

This game, often called the "Brag Bowl", will be just as intense as any rivalry in the nation. It is not recommended for the weak of heart. The only complaint many area fans have is that both of these contests will be kicking off at virtually the same time. There are thousands who, if given the opportunity, would attend both games if one was held at night.

All persons planning to attend the games or the fair on Saturday are advised to leave home as early as possible to avoid a major traffic jam.
