Calendar and Announcements

TDD SERVICE — Chapel Hill Transit can now provide public information and book trips for shared ride and E-Z Rider to the hearing impaired by telephone via a Telecommunications Device for the Deaf, or TDD. Hearing impaired individuals can access this service by dialing the E-Z Rider number, 967-8444, and typing "XXX" on their own TDD. The dispatcher will connect the phone to CHT's TDD, and the telephone exchange can proceed as usual for TDD use.

The Chapel Hill Transit TDD has been purchased with grant funds made available from the U.S. Department of Transportation, Urban Mass Transportation Administration.

For further information about the service, call the CHT public information number, 942-5174.

PRE-VICTORY HOMECOMING AFFAIR — Durham Chapter of the North Carolina Central University Alumni Association is presenting its annual Pre-Victory Homecoming Social and Dance on Friday, October 30, 9 p.m.-1 a.m., at the Durham Downtowner.

Fayetteville Happenings

By Mrs. T.H. Kinney

Members of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority gathered at Emily's Saturday afternoon for their regular monthly meeting with Soror G.T. Hollingsworth presiding. After the business session, a delicious meal was served.

According to our extension agent, B.T. McNeill, our soybean crops are in trouble. An autumn dry spell is almost passing forty days.

Members of La Madrina Toastmistress Club held their first session of Founder's Month activity Monday evening in First Baptist Church. TM Loritha Thompson, president, presided. Tabletopics were conducted by TM Thelma H. Kinney. TM Veatrice Davis was the guest speaker. TM C. Adams served as toastmistress.

Eight presidents were recognized for their year(s) of service while in office. Several guests were welcomed. After the ceremony a delicious repast was thoroughly enjoyed with tasty grapes for the trimming. During the ceremony, TM Devetter Shepard and TM M. McLean gave the ITC History and Club History. TM Amanda Thigpen delivered the Closing Thought.

The Fayetteville Chapter of Links, Inc., celebrated and presented its Pageantry-Talent-Disco on Saturday evening at E.E. Smith High School. Mrs. Irene Caraway, president, presided.

The Omega Psi Phi Fraternity will assist E.E. Smith High by sponsoring a tutorial program on Saturday from 9 until noon. Areas covered will be math, language arts, science and social studies. Area students who are in need are invited.

A "topping off" ceremony was held Thursday at Heritage Place, a church-sponsored housing complex for the elderly now under construction along Cross Creek.

Miss Valery Houston, a senior from Charlotte, was named homecoming queen at Methodist College recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jenkins observed their 50th anniversary on October 14. Friends and relatives enjoyed a dinner at the Jenkins' home on Rochester Drive.

Many family groups around the city enjoyed activities at the State Fair in Raleigh on Saturday.

On Thursdays from 1-1:30 p.m., many enjoy Jubilation T Picnic at Cross Creek Park. Entertainment this week was provided by Jack Wright, pop pianist; "Together," also the Reid Ross Jazz Workshop playing swing jazz. The emcee was Bill Hennessee of WIDU Radio. Drinks and hot dogs were enjoyed.

Many enjoyed the Ceramic Art Show and Doll Show Sunday afternoon in County Arena.

We find here that fewer children are eating lunch in the cafeterias. Maybe — because of the complicated lunch form.

Miss Debra Council of Fayetteville and Stanley Williams of Charleston, S.C., were married Saturday at 2 p.m., in Park's Chapel Free Will Baptist Church. The Rev. E.A. Jackson officiated.

A reception was held at the church fellowship hall following the ceremony.
