Prospective Students See And Tour Campus

Approximately 500 junior and senior high school students from 35 counties, representing sixty high schools, attended the Second Annual Prospective Student Visitation Day Program at North Carolina Central University last week.

High School students and students from two-year colleges were invited to attend the recruitment and motivational program with their counselors.

The students were introduced to the administrative staff who told briefly of the offerings of the university and explained the mission and goals.

Program highlights included visits by the students to various undergraduate departments, a tour of the campus and entertainment provided by the NCCU government association.

T.E. Smith Named Manager

Tommy E. Smith, vice president of membership for the Durham Area Chapter of the National Association of Accountants, has been promoted to manager for financial planning and control for Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company. Smith has been a member of the NAA since February, 1975.
