A Voteless People Is A Hopeless People!

Fayetteville Happenings

By Mrs. T.H. Kinney

Well, Fayettevillians finally got a shower or two of rain. However, not as much as we really needed for the crops and gardens.

We who have had to get up before the sun won't have that problem for a while now. How does it feel? Did you arrive for your appointment or service, or work on time this week? Daylight Saving Time ended last Sunday.

Many families shared their fair-going experiences all week long.

Talk of the Town! The topic "Southern Experience" with Moderator John Wolfe was enjoyed at the Fayetteville Museum of Art and Writers Ink on Sunday afternoon.

Fayetteville City schools were closed on Thursday and Friday for pupil holidays and teacher planning/staff development conferences.

A kickoff for American Education Week is being sponsored by the city, county and Fort Bragg school systems at Cross Creek Mall Nov. 12-14. The county classroom teachers will feature art, displays, marching and stage bands, gymnastics and educational literature. Try to attend.

Did you know that Battered Women's Haven has changed its name to Women's Haven and is changing its focus to other community needs in addition to those of the abused women?

The three additional areas of work are:
 - a transition house for women who need a temporary place to stay;
 - a respite service for handicapped persons in the community;
 - a work exchange program.

The annual Miss Terry Sanford High School Pageant will be held Nov. 10-12 at 7:30 p.m., in the school auditorium.

The Mental Health Association will host the annual meeting next week at Bordeaux Motor Inn. Robert B. Herman will be the keynote speaker.

The District 10 NCAE meeting is to be held at Methodist College on Friday, Oct. 30.

Funeral services for Bill McCassidy, 40, of Lindale Drive, were held on Saturday afternoon in Good-Hope Baptist Church. Sincere sympathy is extended to his wife, Mrs. Linda McCassidy; a son, Gerard; a daughter, Tarsha of the home, and other relatives.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of the late Mrs. Rosa Fowler who was funeralized in Red Springs Sunday afternoon.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bryant in the death of his father in New Jersey during the week past.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hodges of Yonkers, NY, in the death of their son, Richard Hodges, Jr., who was funeralized in Turkey, NC, last Wednesday.

It's a treat to see and hear New York's Claudia McNeill who is playing a magnificent part in the cast of "A Raisin In The Sun". You can see it at the Fort Bragg Playhouse.
