During the month of October, La Petite gardeners participated in a variety of activities.

Durham County Fair was an opportunity for members to exhibit their creative talent. Ms. Genevieve McCrea won first prize in flower arrangement in the Plant and Flower Department. She also won first prize in Christmas Decoration. Ms. Josephine Robinson won second prize on green beans and field peas in the category of Garden Vegetables.

The gardeners participated in the Annual Indian Summer's Vintage Standard Flower Show, presented by the Durham Council of Garden Clubs. Ms. McCrea received first award and Ms. Vivian Timlic received second award in the House Plants division.

La Petite gardeners enjoyed a picnic given by the Better Homes and Gardens Club. Ms. Helen Brown was hostess and La Petite members presented to her a lovely planter as a token of appreciation.

Residents of the Sunshine Rest Home enjoyed the annual picnic given by the gardeners. Ms. Timlic directed the games, read stories and poems. She also presented a gift to the newest member. Ms. Mildred Goode provided piano music and led the singing. Ms. Lelah Smith and her committee prepared and served an entire dinner.

The club members attended the North Carolina State Fair in Raleigh. Ms. McCrea won three first places in flower arrangements. She also won second place in a miniature arrangement using fresh material. Ms. Timlic won second place in the House Plant category.

La Petite gardeners enjoyed a day with the Gate City Council of Garden Club's 16th Annual Standard Flower Show and Bazaar in Greensboro.

Mrs. W.B. Saunders was hostess for the October meeting of La Petite Gardeners as they celebrated their 32nd Anniversary with games, songs and a big birthday cake that brought everyone to her feet and a burst of "Happy Birthday to Us". Every member was present to enjoy this hilarious occasion.

During the formal meeting which opened the evening, reports were made on the various activities of the month, including the "Dig" which was held on Saturday.

Preparations are being made for the annual Christmas Decoration Show which will be held in the auditorium of the J.J. Henderson Towers on Duke St., in December.

Mrs. Lela Smith will be hostess for the November meeting.

Better Homes & Gardens Club Reports On Two Meetings

Mrs. Helen Brown, member of Better Homes and Gardens Club, hosted members of her club and various garden club members and friends recently at the home of Mrs. Mary Allison.

A delectable, colorful and bountiful feast was prepared and appetites seemed fully satisfied. On behalf of La Petite Gardeners, Mrs. Vivian Timlic surprised the hostess with a miniature garden of flowers and thanked her for her hospitality. Mrs. Brown gave Mrs. Genevieve McCrea a birthday gift.

Present were: Messrs. Archie Tilley and George Burton; Mesdames Doris Burton, Vivian Timlic, Margaret Allen, Mary Allison, Martha McGhee, Gladys Burroughs, Genevieve McCrea, Marie Kearney, Gertrude Gibson, Mary Stephens, Mary Baines, Martha Dalton, Mable Bryant, Patricia Tilley, Alberta Harris, Catherine Page, Mildred Goode, Lelia Smith, Patricia Sowell, Willie B. Saunders, Ethel Taylor, Jessie McIntyre, Mrs. King, Vivian Aberdeen, Vita Stapleton, Miss Carol Dalton and Helen Brown.

Out of town guest was Cleaster Talton of Chester, Pa., cousin of Mrs. Page.

The home of Gardener Magnolia Eings was beautifully decorated with flowers from her garden for the monthly meeting of the Better Homes and Gardens Club. Ms. Mable Bryant served as devotional leader in lieu of the hostess.

Old business was discussed. New business included participation in the Durham Council of Garden Clubs Flower Show at South Square Mall. Gardener and new member, Martha Dalton, won first and second awards for her specimen of Celosia (Cockscomb). Invitation was accepted and plans constructed to attend the Gate City Garden Show October 17-18 in Greensboro. The club also plans to attend Duke Power Company's annual Christmas Decoration Show.

Mrs. Eings served a delicious repast.

Members present were: Mmes. Ella Brown, Mable Bryant, Rosa Tucker, Beulah Hill, Martha Dalton, Louise Jenkins, Ethel Taylor, Frances Watson, Thomasenia Shaw, Catherine Page, Helen Brown, Magnolia Eings and Carrie Vereen. Miss Carol Dalton was a visitor.

Mrs. Dalton expressed appreciation to the hostess.

Enchantingly beautiful in purple satin Christian Dior's superlative gown is handbeaded around the neckline artfully looped to form cascade of beads on shoulder, and color complemented with burgundy satin stole trimmed in sable
