

Calendar and Announcements

ITEMS for this column should reach us no later than Friday before the desired publication week. Two to three weeks prior is even better! Mail to: Calendar, The Carolina Times, P.O. Box 3825, Durham, NC 27702. No charge.

DURHAM CITY SCHOOLS MENUS

November 9-13

Breakfast

- Monday — Chilled cinnamon applesauce, cheese biscuit, milk.
- Tuesday — Chilled assorted juices, hot or ready to eat cereal, milk.
- Wednesday — Student Holiday.
- Thursday — Chilled mixed fruit, waffles with syrup or buttered cinnamon toast, milk.
- Friday — Juice, cereal or ham biscuit, milk.

Lunch

- Monday — Cheese burger on bun w/crisp lettuce and tomato, oven-fried potatoes, fresh delicious apple, choice of milk.
- Tuesday — Pig in blanket or ham biscuit, macaroni and cheese casserole, buttered cut green beans, Hawaiian fruit salad, choice of milk.
- Wednesday — Student Holiday.
- Thursday — Seasoned oven-fried chicken, steamed rice with savory brown gravy, buttered vegetable greens, apple-raisin nut salad, hot roll, choice of milk.
- Friday — Easy day lasagna with cheese, tossed green salad with dressing, chilled orange quarters, Italian style roll, choice of milk.

DURHAM COUNTY SCHOOLS MENUS

November 9-13

Breakfast

- Monday — Cereal, peaches, milk.
- Tuesday — Grits & bacon, juice, milk.
- Wednesday — No School!
- Thursday — Manager's choice, milk.
- Friday — Cereal, juice, milk.

Lunch

- Monday — Hot dog w/chili, cole slaw, french fries, pudding, milk.
- Tuesday — Spaghetti, tossed salad, peach slices, French bread, cookies, milk.
- Wednesday — No School!
- Thursday — Hot sliced turkey w/dressing & gravy, buttered peas, orange wedges, cake w/frosting, milk.
- Friday — Pizza, lettuce wedge w/dressing, sliced peaches, cookie, milk.

UPTOWN CHARLOTTE IS THE PLACE TO BE on Saturday, Nov. 7, to view the Johnson C. Smith University Annual Homecoming Parade. Starts at 11 a.m., corner of Sycamore and West Trade, moves east on Trade to Kings Drive, turns left on Kings Drive and proceeds to Charlotte Memorial Stadium for the rivalry between the Golden Bulls of Johnson C. Smith University and the Eagles of North Carolina Central University.

You are invited to attend the colorful coronation of Miss Johnson C. Smith University on Friday, Nov. 6, at 6:30 p.m., in the Brayboy Gymnasium.

More than thirty campus queens, in formal dress, will waltz to "Back Together Again" by Roberta Flack and Donnie Hathaway before Miss Gracie Pemberton, "Miss Johnson C. Smith 1980", relinquishes her crown to Miss Melody "Gigi" Donald, "Miss Johnson C. Smith 1981".

The coronation will be emceed by Ken Koontz, WBT-TV public affairs director and Ray Gooding WBT public affairs director. Both Gooding and Koontz attended JCSU.

The coronation is open to the public free of charge.

NCCU MUSEUM OF ART — Jim Moon Exhibition, through November 13. Museum hours Tuesday through Friday are 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Sunday 2-5. Admission is free.

CHILD CARE FOOD PROGRAM — The Operation Breakthrough, Inc./Head Start Program sponsors the Child Care Food Program.

Free and reduced price meals are available to enrolled children meeting the approved eligibility criteria at the Head Start Center and are provided without regard to race, color or national origin.

THE REGIONAL CONSTRUCTION SERVICE CENTER assists minority contractors in preparing job estimates. The office is located at 511 Grant St. Henry Bordeaux is directing the Center. Job estimate assistance will be given in construction areas such as carpentry, plumbing and electrical service. The Center is funded by the U.S. Department of Commerce.

THE W.D. HILL RECREATION CENTER, 1308 Fayetteville St., will be offering

- a holiday yarns craft class which will include crocheting, cross stitch and needlepoint on plastic canvas.
- classes in aerobic slimnastics, senior citizens physical exercise and a weight control class designed to help people follow a chosen diet program.

For more information on these offerings, call 683-4292.

AMATEUR BOXING returns to the Durham Civic Center on Saturday, November 14, 7:30 p.m. Come see the action as the Durham Boxing Club takes on teams from around the state.

Admission will be charged.

STUDENT ART EXHIBITS: Fuller Administration Building — Durham High, first floor; Hillside, second floor, Holton, ground-floor; Rogers-Herr, first floor, Elementary, ground and first floor, System-wide selected works, boardroom.

At the North Durham Adm. Bldg. — Brogden, first floor, Shepard, first floor, Elementary, first floor.

ARTISTS: Daniel M. Graham III has recently been appointed director for the Contemporary African-American Art of the '80's Exhibition by the Museum of African-American Art in Buffalo, NY. The exhibition, being one of the first national exhibitions of African-American art, will travel from May, 1982 through the Fall of 1984. The opening exhibition in the Buffalo Museum will be from April 23 to May 23. Entries will be in all media with the exception of video.

Prizes include a one-person exhibition at the Buffalo Museum and $2,250 in cash awards. Juror for the exhibition is New York City nationally recognized artist, Faith Ringgold, known for her paintings, sculpture and literary contributions.

The Prospectus can be obtained by contacting the Museum of African Art, 11 East Utica St., Buffalo, NY 14209.

PROJECT LIFT offers Transition-Makers packets with information for adults in transition — reentering the job market, returning to school, considering a career change. To request a packet, phone or come by Project LIFT, Durham County Library, 300 N. Roxboro St., 683-2626, ext. 31.

CHRISTMAS IDEAS — The Durham County 4-H Office will sponsor "Homemade Christmas Ideas Workshop" for youth ages 9-19 at the Stanford L. Warren Library, Wednesday, November 11, 9 a.m.-4 p.m. For more information, call the Durham County Agricultural Extension Service at 688-2900.

TELEMACHUS CLAY — North Carolina Central University's Department of Dramatic Art will present a concert theatre production of "Telemachus Clay" by Lewis John Carlino, November 18-22, in the University Theater, corner of Lawson and Fayetteville Sts. Showtime is 8:15, Nov. 18-21 and 3:15 p.m. on Nov. 22. For ticket information, call 683-6242.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED to help transport cancer patients to-and from hospitals for treatment. If you have the time or if your church or Sunday School would like to assist in this project, please call the American Cancer Society, Durham County Unit, P.O. Box 2893, Durham, NC 27705. Phone: 286-7943.

WOMEN OF ALL AGES: You have a line into the world of communication with the Triangle Cities Toastmistress Club. While making new friends, the Toastmistress Club teaches you the art of public speaking and speechmaking. Dismiss your fears and visit their meetings at the Sears' Conference Room at Northgate Shopping Center every second and fourth Thursday at 6:30 p.m. For more information, call Durham 596-6629.

TERESA SPINNER ART EXHIBIT — An exhibit of paintings and drawings by Durham artist, Teresa Spinner, at the Durham County Library continues through November 14. Exhibit is on the third floor of the Main Library at 300 N. Roxboro St.

Among the more than 25 works on exhibit is a selection of realistic landscapes of North Carolina scenes done in watercolor and oil. Ms. Spinner is known primarily for her graphite portraits which are also on view.

Teresa Spinner is a graduate of Bennington College and Washington University. She attended the Yale School of Art & Architecture and the Paier School of Art. She has studied with internationally known artists. Her work has been collected here and abroad and she is a regular guest teacher at The Galleria San Juan in Puerto Rico. She also teaches portraiture at the Triangle Gallery here in Durham.

OLDER WOMEN ORGANIZE — an organizational meeting of the Older Women's League (OWL) will be held Sat., Nov. 7, 2-3:30 p.m., at Duke Memorial Methodist Church, Durham. Open to anyone in the Triangle area.

Obtaining good, reasonably priced health benefits and insurance, securing fair Social Security benefits and acquiring just pension rights are the main focus of the Older Women's League.

EDISON JOHNSON RECREATION CENTER ACTIVITIES — Leisure Activities for Senior Citizens through Dec. 18, 1-3 p.m. Card playing, chess, shuffleboard, checkers, etc. If interested, call 683-2470 by Wednesday of each week so the staff can set-up for Fridays.

Modeling Workshop Nov. 7-Dec. 19, 1-3 p.m. for teenagers; 3-5 for young adults.

A class in Chess, through December 7. Meets Mondays 7-9 p.m.

Adult Dance Classes through December 19: ballet, belly dance, danceaerobics, modern, partner and tap. An exercise class in "stretch and relaxation" will also be held. Slimnastics on Mondays 9:30-10:30, 7:30-8:30, and Thursdays 7:30-8:30.

Art classes in Cards and Collage, jewelry making, pottery, painting, pre-school art and youth art.

Singing and Percussion classes began Nov. 2. Two music workshops, Dec. 11 and 19.

Artletics for pre-schoolers on Mondays and Thursdays 9:30-11:30 - music, art, games, stories and a snack.

Gymnastic classes for children started November 2 and will continue through Dec. 19. Family gymnastics is also being offered.

Classes in Karate, rollerskating, advanced Tai Chi, racquetball, TREK (Trips Recreational Excitement for Kids).

For other activities and further information, call 683-4270.

FREE MOVIE — The Durham County Public Library presents a feature movie each Saturday at 3 p.m., in the auditorium. No admission is charged. Plan to see "His Girl Friday", Nov. 7; "From Here To Eternity", Nov. 14.

SERVICES FOR THE BLIND AND PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED — The Durham County Library has recently added an information service concerning library services for the Blind and Physically Handicapped. Anyone who cannot use regular printed materials because of a visual or other physical handicap is eligible. Assistance with completing applications is available and catalogs can be obtained upon request. For more information, contact Ms. Pam Jaskot, Durham County Library, 683-2626.

"SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGY", Edgar Lee Masters unforgettable portrayal of life in small town America, will be presented at Theatre in the Park, Nov. 6-8. This work is widely recognized for its simple, lyrical poetry and has become one of the most popular plays in America. Curtain time: 8:15 p.m. Tickets $4 adults; $3 students and seniors. Call 755-6058 for reservations.

JOB CORPS INFORMATION — Young women wishing information about the opportunities available through Job Corps may call the WICS office, 688-4396, or the project director at 489-2593.