Finally Gets Leading Rolls

Simon Estes believes his color has a lot to do with the fact that he had to spend years building a career in Europe before landing a contract with the Metropolitan Opera assigning him four leading roles through the 1982-83 season. Estes, a bass-baritone from Centerville, Iowa, had his first recital in New York's Carnegie Hall last December. UPI

SLAVE

On Saturday evening, November 14 at 7:30, SLAVE, VAUGHAN MASON! THE STRIKERS, and ONE WAY featuring Al Hudson, will appear at Raleigh's Dorton Arena.

The STRIKERS will sing their hit songs, "Body Music" and "Inch By Inch"; Vaughan Mason, "My Big Guitar" and "Bounce, Rock, Skate, Roll"; Al Hudson "One Way" and "Pull Fancy Dancer, Pull".
