Omegas To Honor, Dr. Lavonia Allison On Saturday

DR. THORPE.

Dr. Earlie E. Thorpe, professor of history at North Carolina Central University, will be the keynote speaker at a program recognizing the achievements of Dr. E. Lavonia Allison and other prominent local citizens, on Saturday, November 14, at 7:30 p.m., in the sanctuary of Saint Joseph's AME Church, 2521 Fayetteville Street.

program, presented by the Durham chapters of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, is the concluding activity of Community the chapters' observance associate minister of the of the Fraternity's Na-Achievement Dr. Thorpe will address this year's national theme, "Striving for Excellence," focusing on the historical facets of the black man's strong desire to achieve excellence in spite of seemingly irresistible negative constraints. Dr. Thorpe is the author of approximately 25 articles published in several learned journals, and six books of history, four of which deal with the history of the black man 'the in America. He is listed in Who's Who American Education, Tarheel Lives: The North Carolina Who's Who, the Directory of American Scholars, and Contemporary Authors. He is national presi-.

dent of the Association for the Study of Afro-American Life and History, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Center, Ledge Rock Baptist Church in Wake County, and a member of the National Archives Advisory Council, the NAACP. the State Historical Advisory Commission, Phi Alpha Theta (the national history honor society), Pi Gamma Mu (the national social science honor society), the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, and several other organizations.

E. Lavonia Allison is being honored as the "Citizen of the Year." She is director of North Carolina Manpower Health Development Program serve as president of the North Carolina Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. In 1980, she was appointed to a three-year term as one of the fifteen members of the National Advisory Council on the National Health Service Corps, Health Services Administration of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Very active in community and Democratic Party activities, Dr. Allison has served as vice chairman of the John F. Kennedy Young Democratic Club of Durham County, the Democratic Women's Club, and the Durham (NCHMDP) in Chapel County Democratic Ex-Hill, a position she has ecutive Committee. In held since 1974. Prior to 1970, she became the joining NCHMDP, Dr. first black female to Allison, a Durham serve as chairman of a native, was an associate county Democratic Exprofessor and supervisor ecutive Committee in of student teachers in the any of the state's 100 health and physical counties. She has served education department at on the State Democratic North Carolina Central Executive Committee Edgemont-Few Gardens first and only black to re-elected five con-develop our own system.

under the present system

Leonard Dunston, presi-

Carolina Association of reservations as to whether or not that can be done without radical changes in the current political and social structure. At best, I see accommodations will be made, but in terms of achieving self-sufficiency in a system that is geared pastor of Ebenezer Bap-

Mount.

system.

nually.

Clarence

and mortician:

National

Church, Rocky

I think our

"I think that problems of blacks can be solved. I don't think our answer lies in any political answer lies in us. We have been 'bewitched' in some way or another for lack of a better term, and certainly brainwashed.

We have within our God and within our own culure the answer to our problems. It may take Reaganomics to shake us into that reality. We handle the capital, if you look at the billions of dollars we handle an-former mayor of Raleigh black people will have to be met. I' serve on the Committee and that is one of things that a large faction of us talk-about at all times. It seems like they want to make some moves to un-reform the reforms that we have made. There might be some need in some areas for this, but we are alert to see that it doesn't revert to where we were.

Gordon Dilahunt, postal worker and organizer for the Raleigh Black United

"Sure, the concerns of

Lightner,

Democratic

"I have some grave

philosophical

Black Social Workers:

that we have.

secutive terms. In 1981, she was elected as chairman of the North Carolina Black Leadership Caucus, after having served as its vice chairman for several years. She has also served as a member of the National Black Caucus of Democrats, a member of the Leadership Roundtable of the Congressional Black Caucus, and chairman of the Political Committee of the Durham Committee on the Affairs of Black People. She serves on number of advisory committees, including charter member of the WTVD Channel 11 Station Television Minority Affairs Advisory Committee, the Duke Hospital Advisory Committee, the UNC Contract Programs on Optometry, Dentistry, and Medicine, and the Equal Health Opportunity Committee of the American Public Health University. She was the since 1970, having been Association. She is also a member of Delta Sigma benefit the wealthy and those in government and them and put them there.

The first thing that the Carolina are going to have to realize is that their interests cannot be represented by the Republicans and the Democrats. An alliance of the Afro-American people, in the main, and the labor movement is going to have to be forged in the development of with

Democrats won't do that. Their whole mission is- to maintain the status quo and only lid on things. That is emerge. Even that will people and that kind of thing. It is clear that fun-economic-political

North

people of

White Rock Baptist Church.

Among her awards are Outstanding Educator of America, the North Carolina Heart Association's. Distinguished Leadership Award, Who's Who in Women in Politics, Who's Who in Education, and the North Masons' Carolina Woman of the Year.

Other honorees of the Fraternity include Grover C. Burthey, Sr., include who is the recipient of the graduate chapter's "Omega Man of the Year" award. He is being recognized for his many years of work within the fraternity on the local, district and national levels, and for his accomplishments as a leading Durham business man. He is the owner of Burthey Funeral Services and Burthey Clothiers, and co-owner of Furniture Moods, a recently opened store downtown black-owned furniture showroom southeast. A member of Saint Mark AME Zion Church, he was treasurer of the Building Commnittee for the ohurch's present structure on South Roxboro Street. Receiving the Service Award is Lindsey A. Merritt, who is currently director of the Career Counseling and Placement Center at North Carolina Central University. He is being honored for his near-twenty years service as the undergraduate advisor to Tau Psi Chapter at North Carolina Central University, a position year. The two recipients of the Fifty Year Awards are Dr. Charles A. Ray, a retired professor and chairman of the English department at North Carolina Central University. and H.M. "Mickey" Michaux, Sr., Durham president of Union Inwhich is the largest surance and Realty Com-from which he is resigning at the end of the

DR. ALLISON

pany, Washington Terrace Apartments and Shopping Center in Raleigh, and Glennview Memorial Park.

The Fraternity's Sixth District (North and Carolina) Representative Tyrone Gilmore of Spartanburg, S.C., will be the guest of the chapters for the occasion. A reception will follow the achievement program in the W.G. Pearson Conference Room at Saint Joseph's. The activities are open to

Can The Present Political-Economic System Satisfy Needs Of Blacks? Last In A Series By Pat Bryant

dent of the North institutions that support to exploit the people a political force in elec-economically — where toral politics and also in you are asked to produce the area of economic and labor more than you can social struggle. Perhaps ever realize in terms of a labor party, a third income. I don't see how political force that would those two could ever come into an alliance

When former, President Jimmy Carter and the Democratic Party were deaf to the desires blacks, Afroof blacks?" fewer electoral Americans in numbers have been involved in politics. Will blacks again become involved ington Journal: significantly in the Democratic Republican Parties? Do blacks think their interests can be protected through affiliation within the current economic structure? To get at answers to these questions ten blacks who

> FREE And Over $5.00 In Free with no situation it has.

We'll mail you complete information, obligation, explaining how you can join the nation's fastest growing professional sales organization. Since 1976, over 5,000 people have joined us. They now an income formerly reserved only for top professional salespeo-

Call TOLL FREE for

You'll find out how to start parttime. How our people win and enjoy glamorous vacations..own beautiful homes and new luxury cars!

If this is what you want. pick up your phone and GALL US TOLL FREE! There's absolutely no bbligation. You'll see how National Toll Marketing, a division of The National Communications Center, helps you launch a career that could thousands and thousands of extra dollars for you over the next twelve months. Discover how you can get started without a major investment or any franchise fee!
BIG•STRONG•SAFE

The company making this outstanding FREE OF-FER is National Toll Free Marketing. We are the world's leader marketing emergency protection systems (and fine products) through the use of the Toll Free telephone network a nationwide organization of Independent Distributors.

You can join us, but the first step is to CALL US TOLL FREE NOW. The information we'll mail you without cost or obligation completely explains the emergency services and products, as well as how sell through retailers .. how to create a sales force hundreds...and how you can make big profits on every sale! The call is free. The record is free. The samples are free. There is absolutely no obligation. All you have to do to receive all of this information is dail the phone right now and ask for it.

CALL TOLL FREE!

1-800-824-7888. Ask for 1). Operator No. 393 system satisfy the needs

T.C. Jervey, senior black a parliamentary form of elected Soviet Union belong to campaign. there under the economic

W.J. Kennedy III, presi- ticularly for the black dent of North Carolina population. Mutual Life Insurance Ms. Carrie national corporations:

what's happening today. We've run into a situa- Needs Project: tion where the elected ofabilities, but really based people.

are active in North on how much exposure Carolina life were asked they can get in the media "Can the present and how much they can political-economic pay for it. In other words, political offices today are bought and not won and I think this is publisher in North very unfortunate, par-Carolina and editor- ticularly for the low inpublisher of the Wilm- come people and particularly for the black. "I think it (the There are just not any political-economic constituents who have system) could be made to the funds to buy political satisfy the needs of all offices that come up. As people. I don't know of is evidenced by the last any other government election, money seems to setup unless it's put into be the difference in being and being government. I don't see defeated. That's been the where communism is go- secret of Jesse Helms' ing to be the solution to success and the secret of it because only ten per Senator East. Helms' cent of the people in the money supported East's the Communist Party, moderate or liberal They have got a politician in today's atcapitalistic setup at the mosphere is going to top just like over here. I have a real tough time wouldn't like to live being elected I think this spells bad news for the low income and par-

Graves, Company and board Charlotte poor people's member of several multi- advocate and director of the Southern Organizing "Not really in terms of Project's North Carolina Military Vs. Human

"No! It was ficials are elected not on designed for the incluthe basis of their sion of blacks and poor We have to

J & S Septic Tank Service

Reasonable Rates Tanks Cleaned & Pumped Commercial & Residential Repair & Replace Submersible Pumps

Call 544-1083

Al Jackson

SOLICITING BIDS from qualified subcontractors for the wastewater treatment plant, general construction, for the city of Durham at the Farrington Road site. Bid Dec. 3. 1981 at 2 o'clock p.m. Subbids are requested for clearing and grubbing, grading, grassing, masonry, roofing, painting, and architectural finishes. Minority subcontractors are encouraged to submit proposals and can request additional information on the scope of work from the individuals listed below. Contact Richard Glassen or Vince Rea at Dickerson, Inc., P.O. Box 400, Monroe, N.C. 28110. Phone 704/289-3111.

JOB OPENINGS

Research assistant for studies in health promotion and disease prevention. Need the master's or doctoral degree in health related field and two years of appropriate experience. Applications not received after Dec. 10, 1981. Call Joyce Scott, 966-5011. Health Services Research Center, UNC-Chape Hill. The University of North Carolina is an Affirmative Action Equal Employment Opportunity employer.

> ADJACENT TO RTP 3 mins. RTP-7 mins. Durham-12 mins. Duke

Century Oaks Apartments IMMEDIATE OCCUPANCY

•2. 3 Bedrooms •Fireplaces in Townhouses •Energy Efficient •Up to 2½ Baths

 Draperies
 Washer/Bryer Connections
 Pool & Club House
 Private Patio/Balcony •Tot Lats Indoor Handball Racquetball Facilities

Model Open Daily

Monday-Friday 9-6 Saturday 12-5

4701 E. Cornwallis Rd. Phone 544-4206 Today!

Front:

Please accept my sincere appreciation for your support in the November 3 City Council elec-

The results of this close race further encourage me to work untiringly to help all Durham Citizens in the growth, and building of a better community.

Johnny "Red" Williams

mean shoot in. I think and demand our rights.

tion, Fayetteville: Yes, with modifications. Never having had participate in level out.

Rev. Thomas Walker, might do it. But clearly of consumers rather than and a shopping list. producers in a capitalist production for some of the commodities we con- worn at all. make the changes that sume, but that cannot be are necessary to keep a the capitalist mode that we know now. Through analyze why the clothing in their history in this state selective buying and selling, we can improve frequent" categories is not and the country, for that matter. So I think that worker pay, incentives, kind of force will have to benefits, and worker ownership of production is worth salvaging or not. only be a beginning step in some instances. We toward changing the can improve our situa- placed in the "not worn" lives of people within the tion by building an category, the best approach economy kind of structural poverwithin the ty and unemployment, black community racial antagonism, op- some the of pression of women, the characteristics borrowed throwing aside of old from the world's socialist economics, and the capitalist ones too. damental changes in the Dr. Earl E. Thorpe, national president of the system have to be made Association for Study of Afro-American to eliminate these problems." Ms. Virginia Newell, Winston-Salem alderman and chairman of the Mathematics and Computer Science Depart- and economic system has

ment. State University: "I don't think this country has made a commitment to black people. Black people have been out of the political system which has never included them. Our laws were made to exclude the politically, black economically, in educa-tion and everything else. developed physostigmine, a drug used to treat glaucoma.

"No, I clearly don't We have passed some At the same time, we think so. It (the laws that have tried to have to exist and survive economic-political erase that, but they have never been adhered to. I system) is designed to think we will always be on the periphery and that Afro-Americans have to force our way in. I don't that Afro-Americans are going to have to stand up and say we are a part. In other words, when America stands up, then blacks will stand up too. and maintenance. We'll force our way in Ms. Jennifer Henderson, director of the North

Life and History and University:

professor of history at North Carolina Central "The present political Winston-Salem racism so thoroughly a part of it that fundamen-

Making The Most Of Clothing Investment

According to national sta- Tutterow advises. tistics, the average family, "Remember", she says, regardless of size, spends "what you want to strive for approximately 7 percent of is the interchange of clothing its take-home pay on clothing items and accessories to:

"Learning how to better frequency." use this 7 percent is what Carolina Hunger Coali- Tutterow, extension clothing specialist at North Carolina State University.

"The key to investment the opportunity to fully dressing is planning and planthe ning involves three steps, economic-political says Miss Tutterow. The system, blacks have been steps are making a clothing pushed into the position inventory, an activity chart

The clothing inventory society which rewards should result in a separation only producers. Blacks of your clothing into frequentmuust organize means of ly worn, less frequently worn, least frequently worn and not Try on all the garments in the first three groups and the "less frequent" and "least worn more often. You must! then determine whether some

If a garment has been to discard it, Miss

"Remember", she says, maximize their wearing Next, to better understand 'investment dressing' is all your clothing needs, make about," says Harriet an activity chart listing all an activity chart listing all of your major activities. List your weekly and monthly activities, rank each according to time spent on it and list the garments you have which can be worn for each activity. Identify additional clothes needed. You are now ready to prepare the shopping list. "Your tivity chart become the bases for the shopping list," Miss Tutterow explains. And other criteria include clothing styles, garment fit and life cycling cost of garments. Look for styles that have a long life (from three to five years) and durable construction. And spend the major portion of your money on tops such as jackets, suits, shirts and blouses, Miss Tutterow advises, because the focal point of the body is the face.

RENT-TO-OWN A CURTIS MATHIS TV

Clip this ad and get first week for $1.44 No long term obligations. Call for de tails. 383-5433

D.R. ALLEN & SON, Inc. General Contractor wants subbids from minority business enterprises for the construction of the Farrington Road Wastewater Treatment Plant located in Durham, North Carolina which is bid on Thursday, December 3, 1981 at 2 p.m. Areas to be considered for sub-bids are:

Site work, seeding and grassing, fencing, concrete finishing, reenforcing steel placement, pipe laying, roofing, doors, windows, ceramic and terrazzo tile. cabinetry, painting, and masonry. For information call 9191 868-3151, Jack Samson, or Write P.O. Drawer 1867, Fayetteville NC 28302.

ANNOUNCING

METROPOLITAN DURHAM MEDICAL ASSOCIATES

George Brothers, Jr., M.D. Specializing in Arthritis and Rheumatic Diseases

Arnett Coleman, M.D.

Internal Medicine

Elaine Hart-Brothers, M.D., M.P.H. Internal Medicine

Open for Appointments - Call 919/683-1178 Servicing you Mon. thru Sat. 613 VICKERS AVE. DURHAM, N.C. 27701 Off Chapel Hill St. Behind Washington-Duke Motor Inn