Prof. Wynne Honored At East End

As part of the observance of American Education Week, the staff and PTA of East End Elementary School honored their principal, Spencer A. Wynne, with a reception on Wednesday, November 18, at the school.
Guests included Dr. Cleveland Hammonds, superintendent of schools; Howard M. McAllister, director of personnel; and others who had written letters of recommendation which led to Wynne's selection as "Outstanding Educator" for District 9 of the North Carolina Parent-Teacher Association.
Wynne was one of eight educators from throughout the state who received awards at the state PTA convention in Charlotte last month.

Women-In-Action Honors Two Volunteer Programs

Two Durham Volunteer programs were given awards Wednesday night by Women-In-Action for the Prevention of Violence and Its Causes, Inc.
The St. Phillips Soup Kitchen which has served meals to the needy since 1979 and the Delta Life Development Center, a tutoring program of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority were honored for their contributions to the Durham Community.
Women-In-Action is a coalition of Durham women that seeks to remedy social conditions that contribute to violence. It was founded in 1968 by Mrs. Elna B. Spaulding, and serves as a counseling and mediating agency. It also helps to coordinate community aid programs.
The awards were made Wednesday night at a banquet at the Downtowner Motor Inn. Addressing the group was Dan Hudgins, director of the Durham County Department of Social Services.
The St. Phillips Soup Kitchen was suggested by Rev. C. Thomas Midgette, rector of St. Phillips Episcopal Church on East Main Street. Each weekday from 10 a.m. to noon, the program feeds as many as 200 persons with meals of soup, sandwiches, milk, coffee or juice. Originally supported by the church, the meal program now has a broad base of supporting agencies in the Durham and Triangle area.
The Delta Life Development Center opened its doors in February, 1978. The Center was a year-round public service project of the Durham Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. The Center, through its diagnostic and prescriptive programs, helped to improve the quality of life of the participants by upgrading reading and math skills. As an outgrowth of the Life Development Center, the Durham Deltas set up an after school tutorial program for eleventh and twelfth graders who needed help in passing the state required competency test. The program was highly commended by school principals.
