WOOD AND WAGNER — HEART TO HEART: Their's is a remarkable, true love story. They married young, divorced and remarried. Their love has endured highs and lows, the strain of separate, spectacular careers, and the pitfalls of Hollywood high life. He's Robert Wagner, dashing star of TV's "Hart to Hart". She's Natalie Wood, legendary Hollywood beauty and leading lady. PMM catches them at work: Robert in a photo session for Playgirl Magazine; Natalie on location for her newest film. Linda Harris visits festive

Barcelona, Spain. Chef Tell has an easy way to tell when your turkey is done. THE LOSINGEST FOOTBALL TEAM: The Fighting Owls from tiny Tarkio College in Missouri may go down in football history — not as one of the best teams on record, but as one of the worst. The Owls haven't won a game in years, and week after week, season after season, their best laid plans turn into a comedy of errors. But this year could be different. There's a fiery new coach, and a new feeling among the players that this is it, that Tarkio is finally headed for football glory! Can they make it? PMM follows the Fighting Owls to find out. Tuesday, Nov. 24

out in a crowd. Any crowd. She's a towering 6'9" and for most of her life, has been looking down at the rest of the world. But it isn't easy. It's hard to find clothes that fit. And it's hard to find a tall man to dance cheek to cheek with. Nevertheless, Cathy holds her head high. She's a proud contestant in the Miss Tall World beauty pageant, along with seventeen other tall beauties from around the world. Chef Tell prepares an easy, delicious dish from leftover Thanksgiving turkey. Paula Nelson has a good idea: keeping Christmas spending in your budget. MY FIRST JOB AS A MOVIE STAR: Chuck Fredericks has spent most of his life in Raleigh, NC. He's had a lot of jobs — fruck driver, construction worker, musician — but he has always dreamed of being a movie star. Now he may get his big break. A Hollywood film company is shooting scenes for a major motion picture in the Raleigh area and Chuck has a job as "stand-in" for one of the film's stars. PMM's Tom McNamara follows Chuck to the set of MGM's "Brainstorm" and discovers that the life of a "bit" player in a big movie isn't what it's cracked up to be.

Wednesday, Nov. 25

A BABY AT LAST! For young couples who cannot have children, child-bearing years can be painful and lonely. Bruce and Marilyn Joffe spent thousands of dollars on fertility drugs, and Bruce traveled the country looking for a child to adopt. But the drugs didn't work, and no babies were available for adoption. Finally, after four years of anguish, they found an organization that helps couples adopt babies from overseas. Their baby will be delivered to them — not in a hospital — but in a Washington, D.C. airport. PMM will be there to see what happens when a child and a childless couple become a family.

Maria Shriver discovers how the stars stay in shape.

Dr. Marina Granich reveals how sports pros deal with defeat.

ROLY POLY WRESTLING BEARS: Tuffy Truesdell is a typical proud father of a not so typical family. He plays papa bear to 14 real bears — roly poly giants with funny names like Minnie and Grumpy. But Tuffy's favorite son is Victor, the world famous wrestling bear, a celebrity at every truck stop and town in America. Tuffy and Victor crisscross the continent wrestling together and taking on all challengers. And Victor has an incredible record — 50,000 wins, and no losses! PMM will meet Tuffy and his unusual family, and discover what happens to the people crazy enough to wrestle 600 pound Victor.

Thursday, Nov. 26

AN AMERICAN FAMILY HOMECOMING: The Tuttle family has been working the land for 300 years — making their New Hampshire farm the oldest in the nation. Today three generations of Tuttle work there side by side but the future didn't always seem so bright. Will Tuttle left the farm for a big city job, while his sister Lucy moved to Paris. Then Becky enrolled in law school leaving no Tuttle children to continue the family business. But something happened. One by one, each realized that their family, their farm, and their way of life was more precious than all the glitter in Paris. And one by one, each returned to work on the land again. PMM will discover this remarkable story of an American Family's homecoming.

Joan Embery discovers how zoo keepers use exotic plants to make happy homes for their exotic animals.

Dr. Jim Wasco reveals simple first aid for falling accidents.

HOLLYWOOD'S HOTTEST

STARMAKER: If you want to be a star, hire Jay Bernstein. That's what they say in Hollywood, because Jay is the hottest talent agent in town. Jay is credited with the fantastic success of such stars as Farrah Fawcett, Linda Evans, Suzanne Sommers, and many, many others. But not everyone likes Jay. When Suzanne "fired" him, she dubbed him "Mr. Mean". PMM will go to Hollywood, and meet the starmaker — flashy Jay Bernstein.

Friday, Nov. 27

BOY BINGO GENIUS: Everyone has played bingo, but nobody plays it like Terry Nazarijchuk. Terry was raised on bingo. His mother brought him to the games before he could walk, and by the time he was in kindergarten, he was an expert. These days, Terry plays bingo almost every night and he often wins up to $500 by playing 110 cards at a time! Terry is amazing. He doesn't use bingo chips like most players. Instead he relies on his memory to keep track of all 110 cards, and to mentally "cover" any number that's been called. And bingo after bingo, it's Terry's number that comes up. PMM catches this remarkable bingo wiz in action.

Joyce Kulhawik discovers futuristic appliances that will be part of tomorrow's kitchens.

Steve Caney has a good idea: make a window sill bottle garden.

HOMEMADE HIGH FASHION JEWELRY: The day after Thanksgiving is one of the biggest shopping days of the year. And if you spend it in any fashionable women's shop, you'll probably notice the latest in women's wear: big colorful necklaces made from a rainbow of large stones and assorted metals. They're the work of Lois Becker, a Cleveland woman who commands big bucks for her homemade "Designer Necklaces". Ironically, her thriving business started by accident when she had to find a way to unload $300 worth of beads she bought on a whim. PMM meets the necklace tycoon in Cleveland and discovers how she turned a talent for bead-stringing into an incredible cottage industry!

CREDO OF THE BLACK PRESS

The Black Press believes that America can best lead the world away from racial and national antagonisms when it accords to every person, regardless of race, color or creed, full human and legal rights. Hating no person, fearing no person, the Black Press strives to help every person in the firm belief that all are hurt as long as anyone is held back.
