

Fayetteville Happenings

By Mrs. T.H. Kinney

Miss Stormie Weathers of 713 Varsity Drive, a senior, was crowned "Miss E.E. Smith High School" at the school's annual pageant recently.

Miss Sharon M. Fuller, a 1979 graduate of South View High School and a junior at Winston-Salem State University, has been named queen of Phi Mu Alpha at the school.

Mrs. Beverly Scott will be a consultant for the Cross Creek Reading Council on Saturday, November 21, at the Cumberland Road Elementary School from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Members of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity gathered Sunday evening for a special program. Dr. Uzzell was the keynote speaker. The program was held at St. Luke AME Church located on Hillsboro St.

Members of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority gathered for fellowship on Saturday evening. After the business session, everyone was invited to a delicious treat.

Well wishers and supporters are striving to keep the Miss Fayetteville Pageant. Our very own Miss Darlene Cropper, Miss Fayetteville of 1980, was first runner-up in the Miss North Carolina competition — the best any Miss Fayetteville has done since 1947. Most supporters believe it a worthwhile event.

Experts today are sharing facts about names. Do you know your name readers? This week the name "Walker" is in the spotlight. Walker is an occupational name derived from the Old English word walcere - walker - "to roll, to pull". Thirty-seven of the name were officers in the American Revolutionary Army.

Many interesting activities are being planned for the immediate future for the Youth Council.

The outdoor dramas continue to be very popular in North Carolina.

The Reid Ross Student Council sponsored a "back to school" night for parents on Wednesday.

Fayetteville State University lost 20 to 27 to Johnson C. Smith on Saturday. So we look forward to next year.

Nearly 900 82nd Airborne Division paratroopers paraded at Fort Bragg Thursday during preparations for their departure to Bright Star '82 desert training exercises in the Middle East. It is said to be a "historic first" according to their commander. About 2,700 troops departed from Pope Air Force Base.

Friends and supporters enjoyed a "Thank You" program at Mount Sinai Baptist Church on Sunday evening for Dr. A. Johnson.

Bible study was emphasized around the world during the past week. Perhaps many of you enjoyed various or special programs celebrating the week. Hats Off! Congratulations! Orchids! To all Bible teachers and Sunday School teachers.

Think! Getting older means changing what you eat. Remember, you should match your calories to your activities. We all seem to get into trouble browsing in the kitchen.

Robert F. Kinney motored to Warsaw during the weekend. While there, he enjoyed the annual Veteran's Day Parade.

It was good to fellowship this week with Mmes. Melvin, Farmer, Taylor, Ward, Trent and Eddie Hardy.

Residents, delegates and members of the various Toastmistress clubs met Saturday in Durham. Workshops were conducted and enjoyed. Check it out. Join a club in your town or city. Learn to use language with poise, grace and dignity. You will be glad you did.

Gardeners Organize Junior Club

La Petite Gardeners organized La Petite Junior Garden Club November 13 at the Forest Hills Recreation Center.

The following girls registered as members: Willie Bass, Stacie Blanchard, Eugenia Harrington, Tiffany Jones, Kathy Mann, Kimberly Shyler, Sherry Smith, Margaret Webb, Kecia Samuel, Anethia Witherspoon.

The Garden Gate was opened by Mrs. G. McCrea, president of the sponsoring club. She told the group that the purposes of the club are to: stimulate the love of gardening; promote better horticultural practices; encourage conservation of natural resources; promote the fine art of flower designing; develop an interest in flower show practices; and, encourage home and community beautification.

Get acquainted activities were conducted by Mrs. J. Robinson, Mrs. M. Grant and Mrs. W. Saunders. An attractive table was set up for refreshments. The door prize was presented to Willie Bass.

The following officers were elected: Kecia Samuel, president; Tiffany Jones, vice president; Kathy Mann, secretary; Sherry Smith, assistant secretary, and Willie Bass, treasurer.

Mrs. McCrea and Mrs. Grant assisted the girls in the project, "Christmas for the Birds". They made pinecone bird feeders using suet, peanut butter, Nandina berries and birdseed. One feeder was left for the birds at the park. The project will be on display at the Annual Christmas Show.

The coordinator of the club, Miss Vivian Timlic, expressed appreciation to the senior club members for their cooperation and to Mrs. E. Sherrill for helping to recruit members. Miss Timlic gave the schedule of activities for November and December which includes: A Christmas Workshop for Children at Duke Power Company, November 23; participation in the Annual Christmas Show, December 6; a visit to the Mary L. Stephens Holiday House, December 13-16; and the regular monthly meeting, December 11.

The Parks and Recreation Department approved the Forest Hills Recreation Center as a regular meeting place for the Junior Club.

Helpers Club Plans Activity At Rest Home

The Helpers Club held its regular monthly meeting Sunday, November 15, at the home of Miss Annie Dunigan. Presiding was Mrs. Sadie Chambers, president. Minutes were read by the acting secretary, Mrs. Mary Hughes. The highlight of the evening was the planning of the trip to a rest home on Booker St., Saturday, November 21, the purpose of which is to make the residents of the home feel that they are being remembered for Thanksgiving.

The hostess served a delicious repast to the following members: Mme. Sadie Chambers, Mahalia Tillman, Mary Hughes, Eunice Lomack, Plassie Rogers, Aline Davis, Nannie Beasley, Lillian Cole, Sadie Pough, Mary Langley and Mary Brown.

Miss Dunnigan was assisted by her niece, Mrs. Edna Thompson, and her mother, Mrs. Merma Dunigan.

Mrs. Daniels To Mark 86th Year

Mrs. Florence Daniels of Liberty Street, will celebrate her 86th birthday anniversary on November 20. Mrs. Daniels enjoys life and younger people as well as her own age group. She keeps aware of what is going on in her community and the world.

Congratulations, Mrs. Daniels!

First Aid Ushers Meet

The First Aid Department of the Durham Ushers Union met recently at the home of Mrs. Hortense Willis at 1310 Green St. Devotions were led by Mrs. Hastie Price. Mrs. Susie Craig conducted the meeting and reports were received from all committees.

A delicious repast was served. The next meeting will be held at Greater Saint Paul Baptist Church on November 24, at 7 p.m.

Senior Missionaries Visit Sunshine Rest Home

Representatives of several Senior Missionary Society units of St. Joseph's AME Church provided an afternoon of conversation, games, refreshments and gifts to residents of Sunshine Rest Home on Saturday, November 14. The Sunshine Rest Home is located on Hanson Road.

The Senior Missionary Society of St. Joseph's AME Church includes all adult members of the Carolina Barnes, Mary C. Evans, Sarah Allen, Trumilla Smith and Rosa Parks units. They are named for outstanding missionary leaders among African Methodist Episcopal Church women. Their purpose is to provide on-going missionary services within their immediate communities as well as in distant areas.

Mrs. Willia George serves as president of the Western North Carolina conference branches of the Missionary Society.

Mrs. Florine Roberson is president of the Senior Missionary Society of St. Joseph's AME Church.

Friendly Circle of St. Mark

The Friendly Circle Club of St. Mark AME Zion Church held its monthly meeting recently with Mrs. Mildred Woody, 2534 Four Seasons. The meeting was opened with hymn singing and Scripture.

Members present were Mesdames Sarah Cameron, Dazel Stevens, Lena Thompson, Florence Littlejohn, Corene Brown, Margaret Bumpass, Juanita Barnes, Oveta Byers, Louis Frazier, Hattie Geer, Helen McNeil and Mildred Woody.

Following the business session, the hostess served a delicious dinner. Mrs. Stevens thanked the hostess for a most enjoyable evening.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Corene Brown on Fayetteville Road.

Price Street Club Holds Meeting

The Price Street Neighborhood Club met with Mrs. Sadie Pough, 602 Linwood Avenue, Friday, November 13. Miss Annie Dunnigan, the president, led the devotion and discussed the various activities that the club is considering for the future.

A delicious repast was served to the following: Daniel Johnson, Mesdames Fidelia Brooks, Gladys Faucette, Georgia Felters, Servator Evans, Queen E. Toon, Elmira Flintall, Tinnie Korngay, Cora Brown, Annie M. Dunigan, Sadie Pough, Beola Baldwin, Doris Baldwin, Sherrie Wingate and Margaret Jones.

Mrs. Brooks thanked the hostess for an enjoyable meeting.
