New Generation Singers In Fire Loss & Theft Benefit

The New Generation Singers, in joint concert with the Mount Zion and Community Baptist Young Adult Choirs, will appear at Union Baptist Church, 904 N. Roxboro St., Sunday, December 27 at 6 p.m. This concert is a Fire Loss & Theft Benefit for the group and the Lawson Family of Roxboro, who lost their property by a fire prior to the holidays. Any food, articles of clothing, furniture and the like will be greatly appreciated and accepted at the church. The 12 member family's ages are 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 23, 34, 45, 60 and 65.

In Memory of Our Mother and Father
Mrs. Mary and James Saunders

By Vera S. Scott

We shared so much as a family and you will always be within our hearts.
You were here with us for a long time, and we really thank you, God.
We love you more than words can express.
For you gave us so much love and happiness.
Your caring and sharing from day to day
Will go with us a long ways.
So if we can help somebody in despair and pain,
Then our living won't be in vain.

—The Family
