Super Bowl.

This city which calls itself America's Biggest Small Town, has been used to winning in baseball. But the Bengals, formed in 1967, have had to struggle for an identity in an area where the Cleveland Browns and Ohio State football often dominated.

When the Bengals won the "Ice Bowl" over San Diego, a long time dream of both a city and team were realized.

This could be one of the better Super Bowls. After all, both teams proved to be the best in their conferences and this is the first time since Pittsburgh played Dallas in Super Bowl XIV that such a match-up has taken place.

The 49ers beat the Bengals 21-3 earlier in the season. But on Super Sunday, anything goes. Most of all, it's nice to have new faces.
