

Calendar and Announcements

ITEMS for this column should reach us no later than FRIDAY before the desired publication week. Two to three weeks prior is even better! Mail to: Calendar, The Carolina Times, P.O. Box 3825, Durham, NC 27702. No charge.

ATTENTION HOME GARDENERS — The Durham County Agricultural Extension Service will hold its annual Vegetable Gardening Short Course beginning Tuesday, February 16 at 7 p.m.

The course provides home gardeners with basic gardening information for the 1982 season. Extension Specialists, local gardeners and horticulturists discuss topics ranging from selecting equipment and seeds to growing transplants and food conservation.

The weekly sessions will be held at the Army Reserve Center, 724 Foster St., in Durham. The short course is open to the public, free of charge.

DURHAM COUNTY SCHOOLS MENUS FEBRUARY 8-12

Breakfast:

Monday — Cinnamon toast, juice, milk.

Tuesday — Scrambled eggs, orange juice, toast, milk.

Wednesday — Cereal, juice, milk.

Thursday — Cheese toast, juice, milk.

Friday — Manager's choice.

Lunch:

Monday — Pizza, tossed salad, pickles, cookie, milk.

Tuesday — Cheeseburger, french fries, cole slaw w/carrots, orange slices, milk.

Wednesday — Tacos w/lettuce & tomatoes, creamy corn, pickle, spice cake, milk.

Thursday — Fried chicken, potato salad, green peas, hot roll, gelatin w/pineapple, milk.

Friday — Hamburgers, french fries, lettuce & tomato, orange wedges, milk.

RENT AN ADMINISTRATIVE EAGLE — Members of the North Carolina Central University Public Administration Club are available to help with your household tasks, including baby-sitting and lawn cleaning. The group is raising funds to attend an April conference on "Career Opportunities of the 80s." To "Rent an Administrative Eagle," call 683-6023, 683-6182 or 683-6018 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

THE ISISERETTES YOUTH CLUB of Zafa Court No. 41, Daughters of Isis, will meet on Saturday, February 6, 2 p.m., at Zafa Temple No. 176, 2312 S. Alston Avenue. Dr. Rosalee Sharpe serves as directress of the group.

FABULOUS FRIDAYS — Beginning at 9:30 p.m. All you can drink, rock 'n roll dancing till your shoes wear out. St. Joseph's Performance Center, February 5, Gillespie-Hammer Band w/"Saxophone" Amy.

FREE TAX HELP — Friday Feb. 5, 4-8 p.m., at the Durham Arts Council, tax assistants trained by IRS will prepare (long or short, state and federal) free of charge. Anyone with a low to moderate income is eligible. Bring W-2 forms, receipts and tax forms you may have received.

For more information call Ms. Helen Pressley or Ms. Kathy Walters, 596-9311, ext. 321, Durham Technical Institute.

MORNING EDITION — brings comprehensive news and commentary from National Public Radio in Washington and WUNC in Chapel Hill weekdays, 6-8:30 a.m. 91.5 FM.

PROJECT LIFT offers Transition-Makers Packets with information for adults in transition — re-entering the job market, returning to school, considering a career change. To request a Packet, phone or come by Project LIFT, Durham County Library, 300 N. Roxboro St., ext. 31.

INTERESTED IN COMMUNITY VOLUNTEER SERVICE? Share your skills with others as a Red Cross volunteer. The Durham Red Cross is seeking health and helping professionals, teachers, retired persons, college students, housewives and others to teach classes in Home Nursing, Preparation for Parenthood, Parenting, Baby-Sitting and Good Grooming. The chapter is also in need of nurses to staff blood pressure screening clinics for community groups.

Training sessions are scheduled for the second week in February. For details, call the Red Cross office at 489-6541.

THE DURHAM THEATRE GUILD will hold open auditions for the American Classic "Harvey" on Thursday and Friday evenings, Feb. 25-26 at 7:30 p.m., in the Durham Arts Council Theatre at 120 Morris St. in downtown Durham. Walter DeWinter will direct. The play opens April 9 and runs two weekends. For more information, call 688-4259 and leave your name and phone number after you hear the beep.

QUIZ BOWL — The local 1982 Quiz Bowl has been set for Saturday, February 6, at 10 a.m., in the Durham County Library Auditorium, 300 N. Roxboro St.

Teams from Jordan, Hillside, Durham Academy, Durham High, Southern High and the N.C. School of Science and Mathematics are preparing for the matches. The winning team from this county will go to the Regional Quiz Bowl competition which Durham County Library will be hosting for the first time this year on March 20. The regional winner and the regional runner-up will meet April 24 for the finals.

Everyone is invited to the Durham County Library for the local competition.

IS YOUR CIVIC GROUP SEEKING A PROJECT? — Why not provide monthly birthday parties for the patients at John Umstead Hospital. A ward party would consist of refreshments, favors, and gifts for those having birthdays during that month for 24 or 36 patients. Call the Mental Health Association at 683-2052 for further information.

WINTER LEISURE CLASSES — Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department is currently accepting registration for winter classes for adults in piano, aerobic dance, jazz aerobics, karate, women's fitness, and couples dance.

Youth classes are being offered in baton twirling, karate, piano and dance for fun.

Fees, locations and hours vary with the program. For more information, call 942-8541, extension 203.

THE PRESENCE OF BLACK, works by nine black artists, will be on display February 5-28 at Center/Gallery, 118-A E. Main St., Carrboro. Hours are Thursday, 11-7:30; Friday & Saturday, 11-5; and Sunday, 2-5. The public is invited to an opening reception with music by the NCCU Jazz Ensemble Friday, February 5, 8-10 p.m., and to a talk by the artists Thursday, February 18 at 8 p.m.

IT'S GIRL SCOUT COOKIE TIME — The annual Girl Scout Cookie sale is under way and will continue through February 8. Girl Scouts in the 20-county Pines of Carolina Council are taking orders for seven different cookie varieties at $2 per box. Troops receive a bonus for each box sold. If you are not contacted by a Girl Scout and wish to order cookies, please call Ms. Vicki Atwater at 489-8260. Support the Girl Scout organization through a purchase!

THE MUSEUM'S CHOICE, an exhibition featuring select student art work from the Durham City and County Schools, will be on display through February 21, in the North Carolina Central University Museum. Hours are: Tuesday-Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.; Sunday, 2-5 p.m. Admission free.

OFFENDERS AID & RESTORATION (OAR) is in need of books and magazines for distribution to Durham County Jail inmates. Any and all donations are tax deductible. If you have books or magazines to give, call 682-5773.

CRAFTS CLASSES — Classes in a variety of crafts are being offered at the Duke Crafts Center. Registration for classes continues through February 5, 3-6 p.m., Monday-Friday. Classes being offered this spring include pottery, photography, jewelry, quilting, batik and weaving. Registration is being taken on a first-come, first-serve basis at the Craft Center on Duke's East Campus. For more information, call 684-6213.

HOOK UP WITH THE PROS — A sport fishing school for the salt water fishing enthusiast will be offered at the Harkers Island Fishing Center, located at Grayson's Marina, for the four weekends in March.

The three-day school will address such topics as bait rigging, light tackle techniques, terminal tackle, and many others. Expert instruction by professionals in the charter and sport fishing business will be provided both in the classroom and aboard custom sportfishermen.

For information and reservations, contact Capt. Randy Ramsay or Capt. Jim Luxton at the Harkers Island Fishing Center, P.O. Box 275, Harkers Island, NC 28531, phone (919) 728-3907.

A&T ALUMNI MEETING — The Orange County Chapter of the NCA&T State University Alumni Association will meet Friday night, February 5, 7 p.m., in the Human Services Building on Tryon Street in Hillsborough.

Plans for area high school students' tour of A&T and installation of new officers for 1982-84 are major agenda items. A reception will follow the program.

All A&T graduates living in Orange County are asked to attend.

THE SELF ENRICHMENT SEMINAR sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service that was planned for Jan. 14, has been rescheduled for Tuesday, February 16. The seminar will be held at Jane S. McKimmon Center in Raleigh between the hours of 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Topics for discussion will be "Building Self Concept Through Assertiveness", "The Diet Stress Connection" and "Color You Beautiful".

Persons interested in attending should contact the local Agricultural Extension Office to preregister before February 5 by calling: Durham, 688-2900 or 688-6770; Chapel Hill, 968-4501; Mebane, 227-2032; Hillsborough, 732-9631; Raleigh, 755-6100.

RAPE VICTIMS — Volunteers are available 24-hours a day by calling the crisis line at 967-7273 (967-RAPE), Chapel Hill. A report can be made without the victim identifying himself or herself.

IS YOUR JOB MAKING YOU SICK? Contact NCOSH, the North Carolina Occupational Safety and Health Project, at (919) 286-9249. NCOSH is not to be confused with N.C. OSHA. NCOSH volunteers and staff help workers to improve health and safety conditions in their workplace and to keep N.C. OSHA on its toes. NCOSH provides technical assistance (such as tracking down the chemical makeup of toxic substances, filing OSHA complaints and making referrals to sympathetic doctors), training and education (such as workplace hazards - asbestos, solvents, soldering and others), and political action (our right-to-know about job dangers and public support for workers' safety and health struggles). Memberships are available for interested individuals as well as union members. Call NCOSH for further information.

FOUNDER'S DAY CONVOCATION — Dr. Marshall B. Bass, Corporate Director of Personnel Development for R.J. Reynolds Industries, Inc., will be guest speaker at the Livingstone College Founder's Day Convocation on Thursday, February 11, at 2:30 p.m., in Varick Auditorium on the College campus, Salisbury.

TRIANGLE AREA JOB OPENINGS AVAILABLE 24 HOURS — Persons interested in job openings available in the Triangle area can get that information 24 hours a day, seven days a week on DAISY, the telephone/tape service provided by Durham Technical Institute. The office of Durham's Employment Security Commission updates these job openings weekly.

Between the hours 3-8 p.m., Monday through Thursday, interested persons should call 596-0611 and request the Employment Security Commission tape. At all other times, the tape may be heard by dialing 596-0612.

DAISY contains a collection of 500 tapes including information on Durham Technical Institute, public/consumer affairs, health, educational skills, as well as entertainment. Brochures available at 596-9311, ext. 231.

CHILDREN'S FILM FESTIVAL — Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department's Children's Film Festival will feature "Summerdog" on Friday, January 29, 7 p.m., at Carrboro Elementary School Auditorium. Admission is 75¢ per person.

For more information, call 942-8541, ext. 203.