Xinos Pay Tribute To Black Women

In observance of Black History Month, Saturday, February 6, Beta Zeta's Xinos, a youth group, presented a variety skit titled, "Portrait In Black: A Tribute to Beautiful Black Women."

The skit included, music, dancing and stimulating information on contributions of black women to American culture. Each member represented a black woman who has made the greatest impression upon her.

A special tribute was paid to Mrs. Julia Wyatt Harris, a founder of Beta Zeta Chapter of the National Sorority of Phi Beta Kappa, along with a large bouquet of red carnations.

Soror Lola H. Solice gave expressions of appreciation to the group and remarks were made by Basileus Maggie Henry.

The program ended with the singing of "Lift Every Voice and Sing".

Refreshments were served following the program by Sorors Catherine Armwood and Josephine Yokely.
