Want To Lose Pounds! Try Low-Cal Snacks

Between meals nibbling accounts for a lot of loosened belts and snug clothes.

If you're used to snacking but need to lose a few pounds, try these low calorie snacks recommended by Sarah Hinton, extension food specialist, North Carolina State University.

Keep celery sticks, carrot sticks, zucchini sticks or any other fresh vegetable handy in the refrigerator.

Spread cheese on celery instead of on crackers or bread. Or, try spreading cheese on lettuce, which is low in calories and provides bulk.

Another excellent snack is a hard-cooked egg, which is high in protein and other essential nutrients, but low in calories.

Fayetteville Happenings

By Mrs. T.H. Kinney

Several Fayetteville area church leaders attended the 195th anniversary of the founding of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. Founded by Richard Allen, a freed slave, in 1787 in Philadelphia, the denomination now has churches throughout the world. A highlight was a policy paper, "The Responsibility of the Church to the Black Community During This Economic Hardship."

The Kings of Harmony presented a concert recently at John Wesley United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Sands' piano students presented a Sunday afternoon recital at Mount Hebrew AME Zion Church. The recital was sponsored by the church's Life Members and Ladies Chorus.

Some carried their boots and Stetsons for the rodeo. . . Some swung to the Fayetteville Symphony. . . Some struck the happy medium with the Valentine version of "Sleeping Beauty". . . others enjoyed "The Women" well worth seeing at the Fayetteville Little Theater. . . "Showboat" is still going on at the Bordeaux Dinner Theater. . . Many supported their favorite whiz kid at the Quiz Bowl on Saturday at E.E. Smith Senior High School Auditorium. The winning team goes to the regional Quiz Bowl and the event is sponsored by the Cumberland County Public Library. . . You can still see the exhibits of artists Leonard Dawson, Harvey Jenkins and James Melvin at the Arsenal House Gallery. . . Free to all on Feb. 18 was the Cumberland County String Ensemble at Morganton Road School, a concert sponsored by the Friends Of The Orchestra.

Many are going to see "Medal of Honor Rag" at Fort Bragg Playhouse. Howard E. Rollins, Jr., is the acclaimed star of the motion picture "Ragtime" and Oscar nominee for Best Supporting Actor. He appeared on a program at Fayetteville State University.

A workshop for women themed "Women Of A Certain Age" was held Saturday at Fayetteville Technical Institute's Cumberland Hall auditorium, sponsored by the National Organization for Women, the North Carolina Council on the Status of Women and the Fayetteville State Displaced Homemakers Center.

Mrs. Katie Foushee displayed an item of interest, a hand piano, at the Gillespie Street Library. This project was sponsored by the AKA Sorority.
