Hillside Blasts Vance In Opener; Loses To Durham High

By B. Dawson

Hillside's varsity basketball team opened the Big Six Conference tournament Monday night with a runaway 71-34 victory over visiting Henderson Vance.

Hillside held a 42-21 lead at the end of three quarters, and was never threatened throughout the contest. Hornet head coach Leondras Williams played each of his ball players in the win over Vance and received outstanding performances from sophomore guards Fred Young and Demorris Tucker. Both Young and Tucker moved up from the JV team last week providing the varsity with a big boost.

Young connected for 13 points against Vance, while Tucker added 10. Senior guard Steve Reed and John Davis led the Hornets in scoring with 16 points. Reed sat out the entire second half. Davis snatched down 7 rebounds and Antwain Smith grabbed 10 for the Hornets.

Last Friday, Hillside beat Durham High on the Bulldogs' home court in overtime 55-54. Durham High actually led 52-50 with 2:32 left in regulation. But Hornet guard Fred Young canned two free throws to send the game into overtime. It was John Davis' 3-point play in overtime which lifted the Hornets over Durham High. Davis finished the game as the leading Hornet scorer with 17 points, followed by Steve Reed with 10.

For Coach Jimmy Graves' Bulldogs, freshman center Bryant Carrington tossed in 19 points and Rodney Perkins totaled 11. Kip Leathers and Ronnie Burton added 10 each for the Bulldogs.

DURHAM HIGH TAKES HILLSIDE 74-56
Durham High Bulldogs got revenge in a 74-56 win over Hillside Wednesday night at Paul Sykes Gymnasium in round two of the Big Six Tournament. Bulldog 6-6 freshman center Bryant Carrington controlled the backboards throughout the game. Carrington hauled down 13 rebounds and scored 13 points, while forward Rodney Perkins led the Bulldogs in scoring with 16 points.

Durham High's Ronnie Burton played extremely good defense in Durham High's win over Hillside, said Bulldog coach Jimmy Graves. Burton pressured the Durham guards, forcing several turnovers, and finished the game with 12 points. Senior guard Kip Leathers added 10 points.

Hornet head coach Leondras Williams said the Hornets lost their aggressiveness early against Durham High. Hillside's only lead was at 8-7 dur-
