I LOOKED AND I SAW

Our Route of Escape

By Rev. C. R. Stone

It is through the will of God and the obedience of Jesus that we have the privilege of being saved from wrath. It was Jesus who departed His place of glory in heaven to descend on earth. He became the divine Time-Release Agent as our escape route from the domination of sin over our bodies. Jesus is the Time-Release Mediator of mercy between God and ourselves. It needs to be clear to all here that in Jesus, He is projected as the way, the truth and the life for all believers.

Just as there is a story of reality involving characters, so it is with Christian living. Each character must play his role if he is to recognize the truth. All of us are involved in this true story about Jesus because we have no other route of escape from the domination of sin. The answer for our sinful nature must come from a divine source. Therefore, we possess no righteousness through mind nor body to save ourselves. Again as it comes to the reality of characters in a story, the individual must play his role. The person who desires salvation can escape condemnation through his belief in Jesus who became the Christ.

Jesus was released from heaven likened unto a string that is attached to an object. The purpose of this string is to keep the object on the opposite end from falling. As this story relates to Jesus, it was God on the divine end of origin who kept our Savior from falling. When it appeared to the adversaries of Jesus, the real Jesus Christ escaped from the grave.

He who hath ears to hear, let him hear.
