

Calendar and Announcements

CREATIVE WRITERS' WEEK on the Duke University campus, June 28-July 2, is now accepting applications. The weeklong program includes intensive morning workshops in four areas of specialization: Poetry with James Applewhite, Script Writing with Hal Crowther, Writing for Children with Linda Hirschmann, and Fiction Writing with Lee Smith. In addition to daily speakers series, the seminar includes individual script conference and small group sessions daily. Fee is $135. For an application and further details, write to Ms. Marilyn Hartman, Continuing Education, Duke University, Durham, NC 27708, or phone (919) 684-6259.

SQUARE DANCE — Come swing your partner at Hassle House's Square Dance on Friday, April 16, 9-12 p.m., at the Coffeehouse on Duke University's East Campus (next to the East Campus Post Office). Music will be provided by Michael Fishback and The Durham Rangers. Refreshments and munchies will be available. A donation of $3 will be requested at the door. Hassle House is a non-profit crisis intervention center which serves the Durham community. All proceeds will be used to help continue Hassle House services.

AARP MEETING — The Durham Orange Chapter No. 189 of the American Association of Retired Persons will meet April 21 at 2 p.m., at Henderson Towers auditorium, 807 S. Duke Street.

Dr. Joseph S. Parker, Jr., associate professor of biology, NCCU, will present a slide show on the Art and Tips of Flower Growing. The slides will also include flower growing in Mexico and Hawaii.

THE COUNSELING SERVICE FOR ADULTS at the Office of Continuing Education, Duke University, is now offering the 1981 revised Strong Campbell Interest Inventory in addition to other career counseling services. The Strong Campbell Interest Inventory is an instrument which measures the similarity of the test takers' interests to those of people already employed in diverse occupations. It is especially helpful to people exploring career/educational options who want to understand how their interests fit into the world of work. For further information, call 684-6259.

A SPRING JOB SEARCH GROUP is being offered to job seekers who are finding it difficult to stay motivated now that Spring has arrived. The group will provide structure, support, and resources to assist participants in developing a fresh approach to their job search. Group sessions will be held on Mondays, 10-12 noon, beginning April 26 and running through May 31.

The six week session will offers assistance to job seekers in identifying marketable skills, targeting job openings through networking, and improving skills in resume writing and interviewing. Resources available to participants include library materials, a job search packet, and guidance by a professional counselor. For further information or registration, contact the Counseling Service for Adults, Office of Continuing Education at Duke University, 684-6259.

RESOURCES DIRECTORY AVAILABLE — The 1982 Directory of Durham Community Resources is now available at the Durham County Library. The guide lists and describes approximately 400 local agencies and organizations offering services and information to the people of Durham.

Free copies of the book — one per person — are available at the Main Library, all the branch libraries, and the bookmobile. People needing multiple copies for use in agencies must make their requests at the Main Library.

RICHARD II — The National Shakespeare Company will conclude the 1981-82 Broadway at Duke Series with a performance of Shakespeare's immortal tragedy, "Richard II". The play will be presented for one performance only on Sunday evening, April 18, at 8:30 p.m., in Page Auditorium on Duke's West Campus.

Tickets are priced at $8, $7 and $6 and are available at Page Box Office. Call 684-4059 weekdays, 9a.m-4 p.m.

THE STUDIO DANCE SCHOOL summer school registration has begun. The summer program includes classes in beginning gymnastics, tap, ballet, jazz and aerobics. Reserve a place now. Also ticket information is available concerning the school's 14th annual Youth Dance Revue. Call M-T-W, 5-7 p.m., 682-6382.
