Jerry R. Beatty of Charlotte has been elected president of the Student Government Association at Fayetteville State University. Other officers are Tommy Eugene Bumpass, Roxboro, vice president; and Herbert McMillian, New York City, business manager.

Think! Earth Day was celebrated recently. Did you plant a tree?

The Fayetteville Branch of the NAACP held its "Freedom Day Celebration" Preparing For The Twenty-First Century. Marvin Rouse introduced Dr. W.F. Gibson, the speaker. Dr. Gibson is president of the South Carolina Conference of NAACP and national vice president of National Board of Directors. Special music was rendered by different choirs. The program was held at St. Luke AME Church on Hillsboro St. They continue their plea for your support. Rev. Walter L. McCray is president of the Fayetteville Branch.

Woman's Day was observed at Mount Sinai Baptist Church on Sunday. Theme: "A Christian Woman's Journey One Day At A Time".

Mrs. Pauline Hart presided. Mrs. Evans conducted the Children's Sermonette. Mrs. V. Clagett introduced the speaker, Mrs. Sharon Alexander, who is employed with the Fayetteville City Schools.

The program included various other participants. Theme: "A Christian Woman's Journey By Faith, Hope, Love and Sharing."

After the program, all retired to the Fellowship Hall for fellowship, exploring displays and exhibits.

Herbert Hodges of Warsaw was guest of the Kinneys for the weekend.

Ted Kinney was among those who attended the Democratic Party of North Carolina's 1982 Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner in Raleigh Saturday.

The basileus, delegates and members of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority traveled to Salisbury for a meeting during the past weekend.

Many enjoyed the Eighteenth Annual Cinderella-Cotillion Ball sponsored by Zeta Phi Omega Chapter, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., on Saturday evening at E.E. Smith High School gymnasium.

Members and guests of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity enjoyed their annual Mardi Gras on Friday in the Armory.

Members of the undergraduate chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha at Fayetteville State University participated in the Mid-Atlantic regional conference recently in Winston-Salem. Attending from the local chapter were members Myra Crouch and Karen DeVaughn, Delta Alpha basileus, who presented a skit with representatives of other chapters participating in the conference.

Soror Ellis Jones, eastern regional director of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority and a graduate of Fayetteville State University, will be speaker of the local chapter's 30th anniversary reunion on Saturday, May 1. A recognition banquet will honor the sorority's founder, Soror Beulah Jones. The banquet will be held in the H.L. Cook dining hall.

They'll be looking for an audience on Sunday, May 2. You will be able to enjoy jazz, coffee, displays, exhibits, singing, face painting and the like. Be there Sunday On-The-Square down Person Street and Hay Street.
